“ Words cannot describe the impact Alan had on everyone around him. He was admired and respected by all who knew him. His outlook was always positive and his spirit infectious. He was quick to understand, able to put things in perspective, and always made time for others. He loved his family more than anything and I will miss our many discussions about our kids and sports. He was a great man, my life is better for having known him, and he will never be forgotten. Our heartfelt prayers are with you all during this difficult time.

Deepest Sympathies,

“ Alan was one of those people you wanted to be around. He had a great sense of humor. Alan was a man of his convictions; he had courage to speak his mind and work for the betterment of his coworkers and those he supported. I know he was a very good father and husband. “ I moved to Orlando in 1995, a window with two sons aged 11 and 9. Alan was building his new home next door to me at the same time. He was a wonderful person, a mentor to my two sons and a great neighbor. I can still picture him fishing hockey pucks and balls out of the street drains when my sons lost them there in the middle of their games.

In a few years I met Anne and then Ryan and Makenna. What a wonderful family and special neighbors they all became. I have not seen Alan or Anne and the family in years but they will always be part of my special memories of these early years in Orlando.

Anne, you and your children are in my prayers.

“ Big Al,

While we knew each other for many years as Navy civilian colleagues, it wasn't until the last 2 years before my retirement in 2014 that I had the distinct honor and privilege of working directly with you in support of the Surface Warfare Navy.

It was during these 2 years that my impressions of you were confirmed – a man of honor, courage and commitment with unwavering ethics and integrity; a man of strong character and strong of will but also a man of good cheer and great heart; a man dedicated to his family and committed to his career. No one could ever doubt the tremendous pride and great passion that you brought to the mission in support of the Fleet. You had an inherent understanding of what it means to make a contribution to military readiness and national security.

Others may trod in the path worn smooth by your shoes, but no one will fill them. I will always remember the twinkle in your eye and mischievous grin as we set about to do the day's business!

“May the road rise up to meet you. May the wind be always at your back. May the sun shine warm upon your face; the rains fall soft upon your fields and until we meet again, may God hold you in the palm of His hand.”

With deepest respect,
John Freeman

“ Words are sometimes difficult to find during times like this. When I heard the news, the first thoughts that came to mind took me back to all of our times together at "Carolina". The laughs and struggles that helped define who we are. Alan had a big heart and to his core was a good man. While I had not seen him in recent years, I know he was a huge part of his family and I send my deepest sympathies to Anne, Ryan, Makenna, Dave, Nancy, Janeen and her family. I know he will live on in all of your hearts forever.
