

Cheryl E. Meisel

February 27, 1946 - July 11, 2017

Cheryl Elizabeth Meisel was born in Detroit, Michigan, on February 27, 1946, to Helen Joselyn and Leo Meisel. She attended University of Michigan and MacMurray College studying English and Journalism. She became a mother in Morristown, Tennessee, to her only child, Todd Nathan Meisel. She worked as an Orthodontic Assistant for most of her adult life. She loved her job especially working with people. She loved to joke around and was always smiling, but was also a good listener and had a way of making people feel comfortable and special. She was an amazing Mother and was always there for her son, providing guidance, support, values, and unconditional love. She had the biggest heart and kindest soul, and you could see it immediately upon meeting her. She also had a special place in her heart for animals and wanted to volunteer at a shelter or rescue, or foster, or adopt, when she retired from her career. Her health unfortunately did not permit for this. Not enough kind words can ever be said about this amazing woman, Mother, and friend. The sun will never shine as bright without her in this world, but her presence will certainly be felt by those who knew her, and her memory will live on. Her mortal suffering has come to an end, but her eternal life and legacy is just beginning. I love and miss you dearly on this earth Mom, but I know you are with me, and we will be together again.

In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to any animal foundation of your choice in memory of Cheryl.

“ There is no way to express the light that shown through the eyes of this woman. Just upon meeting her it was obvious. She had a glow that I wish she herself had recognized.

The world needs more love and more people like Cheryl in it. She is surely enjoying the peace that she so deserved. To the love of her life, Todd, you made her proud and she couldn't have loved you more!

“ Although we lost contact through the years I know Cheryls heart was one of the biggest and she was truly a good friend and co worker. I thought about her from time to time and wondered how she was doing I want to remember the good times with her and im glad I didn't see her bad times. RIP Cheryl you will be missed but never forgotten.
