“ Lucky me to have met this incredible woman over 30 years ago. We shared many relationships and experiences over the years, from our first in Travelers Human Resources to our last working years in Travelers Claim and beyond. She was an ever calming presence who seemed to have time, encouragement and belief in everyone. We shared a strong love of family and I will never forget the support she gave me when my late husband was facing tremendous challenges with cancer. Chris was a gift to all of us. Christine C. Burr...a life well done! Ron, Lindsey, Chelsea, Courtney, and her so loved granddaughters, Naia and Brenna, Stay strong. The love you shared will continue to grow with every passing year. My deepest condolences.

“ I have thought about Chris and all the wonderful memories I have of her everyday since I heard the news. She was a great woman and a great friend that I am ashamed to say I let slip out of my life for many of the past several years. We travelled together, worked together and laughed together. She was a great woman, always inspiring both in her professional life and the love she had with her family. I miss her.

Sincerely,

Cathie Marr

“ To Ron and her daughters your mom was a breathe of fresh air. I had the pleasure of working with her in the Orlando office. We shared we cried we prayed and a friendship was formed. We shared a text or two around the holidays. To be absent from the body is to present with the Lord. Rest my friend. Heaven gained another Angel.

“ I could not believe my eyes reading of Chris' passing. This woman who made my good friend so very happy for a lifetime - your visits after your girls' births, wrapping them so tightly due to the threat of SIDS - best parents ever - and the kindness and love just oozed out of you both. You two will always be in your 30's to me. So sorry for this loss, Ron - and so grateful to have met her and to have followed all the lovely posts and photos of your kids over the years. We may not be far behind her but it doesn't take the sting out of this news. Take thee care, my friend, and all good thoughts and condolences to your lovely daughters and their families.

“ Dear Ron, Lindsey, Chelsea and Courtney and families,

We were so sorry to hear of the passing of Chris. She was young only 65 years old. She was a wonderful lady and she loved the Lord. For several years she and I wrote to each other on our Commodore 64s - that tells you how long ago that was. We were like minded! We shared lots of what the Lord was teaching us and grew in Him. Both had little kids so it was very helpful in those years to share what we were doing as we tried to do the best job we could! Your mom was a great communicator! She sure loved each of you and enjoyed talking about you all! May God comfort all of you as only He can.
