

Clarence Frank McLaughlin

February 2, 1943 - May 24, 2019

Clarence (Bud) Frank McLaughlin, 76 of Uniontown, passed away May 24, 2019 at Uniontown Hospital surrounded by his loving family. Bud was born 2-2-43 in Connellsville, PA, son of the late Clarence McLaughlin and Ester Overly McLaughlin.

He graduated from North Union High School and was a veteran of the U.S. Air Force and served in the Vietnam War. Bud was employed at Rockwell Sensus, retiring after 37 years. Bud was an elder of Hilltop SDA Church at 535 Connellsville St, Uniontown.

He enjoyed attending and serving the Lord at his church of worship regularly. Bud especially enjoyed spending time with family and friends, and going to baseball games of his loved ones. Bud was one of the strongest, most resilient, selfless, loving, kind and caring man. He had a strong faith, confidently recognizing Jesus as his Savior. He trusted in God's perfect provision during every joy and sorrow, even during his courageous battle with heart disease and renal failure. He often pondered God's assignment, bringing others to Jesus along the way. God blessed this world with an amazing man, son, brother, husband, father, grandfather, and friend.

He is survived by his loving wife of 16 years, Lynn Stone (McLaughlin); daughters, Kimberly Solensky and husband Mark, Kris Wilson and husband Mike, Kaitlyn Harlan and husband Ben; step daughters, Lauren Martin and husband, Dennis, Nancy Rhoden, Christine Cellurale and husband James; step son, Malcolm Stone and wife Brooke; grandchildren, Madison and Kaleb Wilson; step grandchildren, Aubrey, Owen, Aden, Addy, Elim, Shelby, Reed, Seth, Casey, and George; sister, Paulette Hardy; brothers, Jeff, Bob, and Danny; nieces Amy Franzer and Annie Kutek, and several others.

Immediate family and close friends will be received at his memorial service at Hilltop SDA Church, June 2nd, 2019.
