“ I have the best memories of Uncle Jimmy growing up. Our visits were fun filled and always an adventure. There are so many hilarious stories of his and my dads shenanigans! Uncle Jimmy lived life to its fullest. He is dearly loved and will be dearly missed. I will keep all the sweet memories in my heart.

“ Sincerest sympathy Eleanor, Maria, son-in-law Michael, daughter Cindy, Jim, Matt Emily, Jamie and all the family of the extraordinary James Dougherty. His courage through the most trying events life could throw at you is an example one admires and hopes to achieve. His love of family and infectious sense of humor is a legacy the family can be proud of. Rest in peace James, you will be missed.

“ I remember going to Uncle Jimmy's place in Tannersville to a big picnic. There were chickens running around and the point was to catch one of these chickens which would be your meal. I think that was the first time Ben met my extended family. Quite the introduction and it was very fun! I also remember picnics in the summer in Gram's backyard and all of the crazy fireworks. I have such happy memories. Rest In Peace Uncle Jimmy.

“ As a kid, it was always fun and exciting to be with Uncle Jimmy. I remember being in the car with him, Grandma, Dad, and his son Jimmy driving around Hazleton. Grandma was an excitable backseat driver and panicked when he turned the wrong way down a oneway street. Over her shouts of "Jimmy, Jimmy, Jimmy," he was shouting back, "Don't worry Ma, we're only going oneway!" I loved his energy and zest for life.

“ So sorry to hear of the loss of Uncle Jimmy, my Dad's youngest brother. I have so many fond memories of him growing up, playing with my cousins and swinging on the tire rope swing. I remember the 4th of July when Uncle Jimmy set off all those fireworks in the backyard, it was such a fun time. Sending prayers and peace to my Aunt Eleanor and my cousins Jim, Michael, and Maria. Rest In Peace, Uncle Jimmy with Grandma and Uncle Danny by your side.
