

John Stanley Benton Jr.

May 21, 1941 - July 17, 2019

John Stanley Benton Jr. was born in Westfield, MA.

When he was 2 he was found by his frantic mother mesmerized by a passing train. At about 4 he showed his artistic abilities 'painting' a club chair with ink.

John was a renaissance man. He had a keen understanding of mechanics of all kinds and could fabricate almost anything. He was also a pretty good artist.

those of us who love him dearly will miss him more than words can say.

Comments

“ Looking at photos today and enjoying the happy memories. You were one in a million brother-in-laws. I will always cherish The memories of the Christmas I shared with you and Phyllis a few years ago. Rest in piece my beloved brother-in-law.

Martha - July 24, 2019 at 10:59 AM

“ I'm sorry for your loss my prayers are with you always.

Love Aunt Colleen

Colleen Stewart - July 23, 2019 at 09:14 AM

“ Colleen Stewart lit a candle in memory of John Stanley Benton Jr.

Colleen Stewart - July 23, 2019 at 09:11 AM

“ We have many fond memories of John, always looked forward to getting together when we came to Florida. Just seems like yesterday Phyllis that you and Johnny made the trip to Tennessee for our wedding, that was 36 years ago the 15th. Our thoughts and prayers are with you each day. We will miss him.

Danny & Pam Stewart

Danny Stewart - July 19, 2019 at 09:05 PM

“ He was a much loved uncle from a distant country. Always loved catching up when we could. Fondest memories of going 4WD'in in his Jeep. I'd be sitting on his lap steering and he'd be doing the pedal work. Until we meet again x

Shane Blacker - July 19, 2019 at 08:25 AM