

K. Thomas Risner

November 18, 1958 - April 24, 2020

Kevin Thomas (Tom to Florida, Kevin to NC) Risner, age 61, of Apopka, Florida passed away on April 24, 2020. Mr. Risner was born on November 18, 1958 in Cheverly, Maryland to Thomas Newton & Betty Dolores (Miller) Risner.

Tom bravely fought a 5 year battle, which he won, with throat cancer, but could not defeat the lymphoma that followed.

He is survived by his wife, Donna Marie (Thompson) Joyce and her daughters Paula Black and Nanci Savage Oxner of Apopka, as well as his mother Dolores Risner of Arden NC and brothers John Risner, and wife Sharon Parente, of Larchmont, New York and Jim Risner of Nelson New Zealand

Due to the coronavirus there are no services scheduled at this time. We hope to have a celebration of his life in FL later this summer, followed by a Memorial Service in NC in September.

Tom's Family invites you to leave a message of condolence on the Tribute Wall created in his memory.

“ Dear Tom,
The house is so empty, the laughter is gone, it's your laughter I miss, your smile, you just being around. Tom, my stepdad, dad and dear friend, a girl does get that lucky all rolled into one. The house is so quiet, it's deafening. We miss you but are so glad your suffering is over. I have so many memories, all good. I am so grateful for our conversation on Thursday night, taking it to heart and you won't be disappointed. Love and miss you more than words, Nanci

“ I was always in awe of how much of a Dale Earnhardt you were. Of course as a stupid kid instead of joining your fandom, I would always root for Jeff Gordon his archrival. You put up with the constant trash talking, even though I had no idea what I was talking about, and also threw it back in my face constantly.

One time we were at Grandma's and there was a little bit of Mashed Potatoes left. I asked if anyone wanted to have the rest, Hoping everyone would say no and I'd dive in, you stared at me scooped them onto your plate and ate smiling at me. It's a fun memory I'll never for get.

“ There are no words Dad, I love and miss you so much. I am so lucky to have had you as my dad. You have been the best grandpa and great grandpa in the world. We have lots of great memories. I am so glad your not in pain anymore and you can eat steak now that's a big deal I know. My heart is happy for you as your sitting with your dad I'm sure. As for me I know you'll be watching over me and I will try and make you proud. My heart is broken right now I just want one more coffee talk, one more hug. Rest now dad I'll do my best for mom.

I'll always love and miss you
Your daughter

“ You fought with a strength I don't think I could have. It's hard to think of all the good times now, but there were so many. Sharon and I look forward to this quarantine lifting and being able to get to Florida to spend time with Donna and celebrate the years you had with all your friends there.

You will be missed Brother.
