

Kaluska Poventud

August 21, 1962 - June 26, 2020

Kaluska Poventud, age 57 of Los Angeles, California earned her angel wings on June 26, 2020. Kaluska was born on August 21, 1962 in New York, New York City. Growing up amongst a clan of talented writers, artists, close family and neighbors in a small neighborhood like Tribeca was the impetus and breeding ground to flourish in many directions and attain accomplishments both personally and professionally. The eldest daughter of famed Latin musician Miguel Poventud and mother, Norma Iris (Guzman) Poventud. Kaluska was preceded in death by her father. Kaluska is survived by her mother and sister (best friends) Yolanda Poventud and the love of her life, Frederic Jean Pierre Charpentier.

“ Some people are so good it is hard for them to live in this hard world. Kali was one of those really good people. She had a big, caring heart and cared about what's most important: people and justice for all people. She had high standards, doing something well and making it beautiful were important for her. I always enjoyed being with her and working with her was a pleasure. I am very sorry she had to go through such a hard death.

Frank Desiderio - July 03 at 05:09 PM

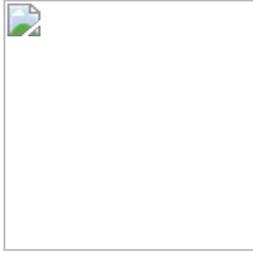

“ I am still not quite believing you have left this world. It is difficult to put anything into words I will never forget you or your smile.

“ Descansa en paz Kali, los angeles te esperan. Te recordare siempre, Padrino, Mike

Mike Rosario - July 03 at 08:40 AM

“ Kali was a soul walking among us. I am more because of her presence in my life. I am filled with gratitude that I should have been blessed by her friendship. Love, Paul Crehan

Paul Crehan - July 03 at 12:53 PM

“ I always admired Kali's creative spirit and her resilience; if something seemed virtually impossible to accomplish but needed to get done, Kali figured it out and made it happen. Most of what I learned about documentary production, I learned from her. She was a consummate professional and a devoted friend. Love, Timothy Crehan

“ I always knew in my heart and soul that we would pick right up from where we last had one of our deep conversations. I could have spoken with Kaluska for hours at a time, anytime! We were Puerto Rican Sisters. It's been so many years since we've spoken, but it does not really matter. We both knew always there was a special place in our hearts for one another, always. Kaluska lives on! Her Bright Spirit, her Beauty in and out.

I recall Kaluska telling me that she was named Kaluska because of the main character in a novel her mother was reading right before her birth.

May you rest in Power dear Precious One, you will never ever be forgotten. Love you ALWAYS

Yvonne

“ Until We Meet Again

Those special memories of you will always bring a smile.

If only I could have you back for just a little while.

Then we could sit and talk again, just like we used to do.

You always meant so very much and always will too.

The fact that you're no longer here will always cause me pain, But you're forever in my heart until we meet again.

Gracias por haber sido parte de mi vida

Naida Angarita - July 02 at 03:16 PM

“ I feel so lucky that Cornell brought us together. Kaluska was one of a kind, such a special human being. I will always carry her beautiful smile, gentle soul, creative spirit and huge loving heart in my heart!

Dalia Stiller - June 30 at 11:21 PM

“ Heartbroken... met her at Cornell. Loving, caring gentle, sweet, brilliant, gifted. My condolences to her family. may the Lord have her in his glory.

Ricardo McKay - July 03 at 12:47 PM

“ Kali - the ever-smiling gentle and sweet one. I enjoyed our "smoking" talks a decade or so ago, I remember the depth of your feelings on certain issues and events, the bubbly chuckles, the flowing tears lamenting over painful incidents ... I loved your hair and often told you that. It's been a pleasure knowing you and I ache at the memory of how much you suffered towards the end of your earthly journey. May His Heart meet yours in joyful splendor. Rest now and enjoy your God Face-to-Face.
