“ I will always remember him, as a genuine person, his honest personality bright the night shift, we always talk about his babies, how he loved to spoil them cooking for them. You will always be on my prayers.

“ Scott and I had several years working together. We would both fuss and cuss about our jobs to each other. He will be missed terribly.

“ 28 years, eight cities, seven States we shared a life. We landed in Orlando probably 14 years ago where he spent a good part of his time working for Coca Cola Enterprises-passionately doing what he loved -making soda, and making sure it was made right.

Scott was a level of strength that can't be replaced. He loved his family. And he loved the five dogs he had over the years. They were his girls.

He will be forever remembered, and forever missed. And he will have left a legacy of love -that we have all enjoyed.

Love you Honey
