“ Fr. Nathan, Veronica and Tim,
It's hard to believe that it has been almost a year since our dear Mary Adah passed from here to eternity. I have been thinking of her and missing her, as I have so many times this year. How I miss her phone calls and long conversations, her encouragement, her spontaneous and heartfelt prayers, her infectious laughter and sense of humor. I hope that you are all well and have healed a bit from losing her. She will, of course, live on in our memories and in the faith that she still intercedes for us before our Lord, Jesus.

“ Mary Adah was my secretary when I was interim President of Ave Maria College in Michigan during the year of transition from Michigan to Florida--2002. She was a great joy to work with--conscientious and professional while personable, cheerful, and humorous. She always wore a smile and was quite clearly a woman of faith and prayer. My wife Maria and I always kept in touch over the years. We will keep her in our prayers, as we also ask her to pray for us.

“ When I met Mary Adah five years ago, I remember her eagerness to help my family find ourselves at home. Day after day, week after week, we met and many times our conversations would drift from budget spreadsheets to our dreams and fears. I am thankful to have enjoyed her friendship just the way she was, kind, helpful, sometimes shy, but unapologetic for her deep and notorious love for God. After the thousands of papers and invoices we processed, we called each other by our initials, mine are UJ and hers is MAM. I smile now, as I remember saying "yes, ma'am" to her continued encouragement to get things done...we love you Mam!

“ Mary Adah worked in our office while she was attending Franciscan University. I remember her as a person filled with life and joy -- a joy and enthusiasm for living that was infectious. We kept in touch over the years as she worked at Ave Maria Law School. She became one of those special people you encounter in life and don't lose touch with. Our conversations centered on the faith, so I am certain that she now is experiencing what she only partially -- but so joyfully grasped here on earth -- that being God's love for the souls he created.

Even though I've only known her for a short time my memory of her will live forever. Please accept my condolences and know that my prayers for you and Mary Adah will continue in the days ahead.

“ I am saddened to learn of Mary's untimely death. She has ever been one of my finest Millikin University English majors. Yes indeed, she was especially well read in Shakespeare; back in the day we had several Shakespeare courses together. Mary Adah, may flights of angels sing thee to thy rest.

“ Sorry for your loss. I spoke with Mary Adah several times as a law student at Ave Maria School of Law. She was always very kind to me, but I will most remember her for the speech she gave at the Christ Renews His Parish Retreat at St. Agnes: She did an amazing job! Her conviction was profound, and she delivered the speech while on oxygen. Beautiful witnessing! Grace and peace, Andi

“ Mary Adah was a rock of faith. She never hesitated to ask God for peace and help with any problem, big or small, and for any person, no matter when. Her faith inspired me and still does.

“ Mary Adah was a pillar of faith. No matter the time or situation, she always asked God for His help and assistance. Whether we were struggling with something personal or if it was work-related, she would pipe right up asking God for His help in that moment with whatever the struggle. Her faith in God's love and goodness inspired me so much. I am grateful for her faith and for the joy with which she shared

“ Mary Adah, my Italiano sister and dear friend, who was joyful and fun loving. You will be missed by all those who knew and loved you. I remember happy times at the Westfield house, eating, singing and dancing. Mary had a beautiful voice and now she gets to sing in the heavenly choir! Thanks Mary Adah for all your prayers for me and my family, keep them coming. Be assured of my prayers for you dear one. Praying for you all, Father Nate, Veronica and Tim. She loved her family dearly and was a mighty prayer warrior. Good to know we have a faithful person of prayer, Mary Adah who continues to pray for us in the heavenly realm!

“ Mary Adah was a student of mine at Franciscan University of Steubenville. She was insightful, witty, frank, funny and devout. Our careers seemed to parallel each other. When I retired from Franciscan and began to teach a Ave Maria School of Law, there she was working hard in the Law School library. We had many a good conversation, prayed together at mass and she was there to help me out when I needed some speedy research at the library. My only regret is that we didn't spend even more time together. I will look forward to do so when, as St. Thomas More said, we all meet merrily again in heaven.

“ Malavolti Family,

I cannot adequately express just how much the entire Ave Law Family appreciated and loved Mary Adah. She was truly extraordinary in her deep faith, kindness to everyone she encountered, and she was supremely competent at her job. We were blessed to have her as an integral member of our Ave Law family. I will also remember Mary Adah, as will our entire school. We miss her and we love her. She represented everything good about our beloved school.

God Bless,
