

Mary Anne Shennett

December 21, 1935 - September 29, 2016

She loved Northland Church and was a member for 25 years. She has been involved in a variety of ministries, including a bible study currently in her home. This world is missing one of God's mighty ambassadors of love today. On Thursday September 29, 2016. Mary Anne Shennett left this temporary earthly home for her Eternal home of glory. She is now free of pain, dancing freely on streets of gold with Jesus at her side. Nobody enjoys a party more than Mary Anne! I am sure she is running from person to person commenting about all the splendor before her eyes. She never met a stranger. She had compassion for everyone she came in contact with. She was so generous with her compliments and sincere uplifting words to all she met. Anyone who encountered Mary Anne and her words of wisdom have found comfort because of her heartfelt concern for them. She always took the time to encourage anyone who needed it. We are the most fortunate ones, her family. This amazing woman of God was a loving wife to Joe Shennett, mother to Steve Shennett, Bob Shennett & Mary Anne Bombard, Mother-in-law to Terri Shennett, Kelly Shennett & Michael Bombard, Grandmother to Steven Shennett, Lia Bombard, Anthony Shennett, Zachary Bombard, Taylor Shennett, Nicole Shennett, Cody Shennett, Bradley Shennett and Great-Grandmother to Steven Von Shennett, Jr.

“ Happy Anniversary, Honey!

Mary & I went to lunch today in memory of our 65th Anniversary. I haven't heard from the boys yet but I'm pretty sure I will. Lia sent us a sweet message. Everyone is doing fine, Honey. We all miss you but we know you are in a better place by far!

I love you,
Joe

“ Happy Birthday, Honey!

I found the poem I wrote to you on your 1st birthday we celebrated together. It was 65 years ago when you were 20 and I was 21. Here it is, Honey:

I want to say something to you
That I have never said before
Have a Happy Birthday, Darling
And may you have many more.

The present that I gave you
Is considerably very small
Compared to what you gave me
You gave me your all.

I promise you, Darling
To do my best in every way
To make every day as happy
As your 20th birthday.

I love you ,
Joe;

“ It has been 4 years since you went home to be with God. We miss you very much, but because we know where you are, we are so happy for you! Mary, Lia and I went to First Watch today in memory of you. There are many things happening down here that are bad but God is watching over and protecting us! Some day I'll be with you again, not for 60 years but forever!

Your husband always,
Joe

“ Happy Anniversary, Honey
Today would be our 64th anniversary, Honey! Our other special day will be coming up in a few days so --- Happy Valentine's Day to my Funny Valentine! You were always my Valentine and you always will be!
I love you now and forever,
Joe

“ Happy Birthday & Merry Christmas, Honey!
Today, our family is celebrating your birthday & Christmas at Steve's house. Every member of our family will be there and a photographer will be taking pictures! Our family has grown a little since our last family picture - 3 children, a husband & a wife have been added. Our family has grown to 19 people, Honey.
I love you & miss you very much,
Joe

“ It's been 3 years since you left us, Honey. Steve, Mary & I went to one of your favorite restaurants today in memory of you. We had 2 surprise visitors, Lia & Zac. You were in our thoughts, Honey. Steve said that when he told Bradley about this special day for us, he said it was Memom's 3rd birthday in Heaven. I love that! We all miss you very much but knowing where you are comforts us.

I'll always love you,
Joe

“ Today would have been our 63rd anniversary, Honey. I was going through our scrapbook and found the first poem I ever wrote to you. I wrote this poem in May 1955, and it tells how deeply I loved you, only 3 months after we met. Here is our first poem:

I will never forget
The night that we met.
We danced & talked the night away
At a party for St Valentine's Day.

It was meant from the start
That we would never part.
But I never guessed at the time
That you would always be mine.

My heart belongs to only you
And I will always be faithful & true.
To make you happy is my goal in life
My desire is to make you my wife.

Your Funny Valentine,
Joe

“ Happy Birthday Honey! This is a good year for us, isn't it? Our 2nd great grandson was born and our Lia got married. It was a beautiful wedding! We'll be celebrating your birthday today at Toojay's. You always liked to go there. We all miss you but the sorrow is soften by knowing where you are and who you are with.

I will love you always,
Joe

“ Hello Honey, It's been 2 years since you left us to be with God. The family met at one of your favorite restaurants today because we wanted to be close to something you really liked. I don't know if you always hear me but I talk to you every day! I miss you so very much but knowing where you are and that some day I'll be with you comforts me!

I'll love you always,
Joe

“ Happy Mother's Day, Honey!
Your children and I miss you very much but we are comforted by our belief that you are with Jesus and surrounded by love. In case God has been keeping you busy up there, I just want you to know that our little girl has become the mother we always knew she would be! I'll love you always, Honey.

“ Happy Anniversary, Honey! Today would be our 62nd anniversary. I miss you very much but God, our children and their families are helping me get through each day. I know that some day we will be together again and it will be forever.

With all my love,
Joe

“ Happy Birthday, Honey. While watching a movie on TV, I heard this poem:

Death leaves a heartache
No one can heal.
Love leaves a memory
No one can steal.

I thank God that the wonderful memories I have of you and knowing that you are with Him soften the ache in my heart that will always be there.

I love you, Honey

“ It has been one year today
Since God took you away

To live in your eternal home
That He prepared for you alone

I miss you so very much
Your tender kisses and gentle touch

But one day I will be there
And all eternity, we will share.

I'll love you always,
Joe

“ Happy Mother's Day, Honey. This is the first Mother's Day we have not celebrated together in 60 years. There is no doubt in my mind that you were truly a great mother. The best testimonial to this fact is our children. Their love and respect for you transcends any words that can be spoken, so I won't even try. I just want to say that I am proud and honored to have been the husband of such a wonderful woman. I'll love you always, Joe.

“ May the Lord continue to comfort and bless ... Joe, Mariann, and all your family members. Mary Anne will always be remembered for her love in Jesus. She prayed and spoke the truth about God's loving and caring ways. Mary Anne prayed blessings over you all. They are still in progress. She will always be treasured in my heart and I miss her very much. One day we will rejoice once again in the Heavens and openly proclaim God's Love together. Kathy Neubaum

“ Happy Anniversary, Honey. It's hard to believe that we were married for almost 61 years. Time flies down here but you now have all the time in the world. We all miss you, Honey, but we are happy for you because we know you are with Jesus. Here is a little poem for our 61st Anniversary. I hope you like it.

You were the love of my life
You were my closest friend
And if I had the chance
I'd do it all over again.

It's hard to remember a time
When we weren't together
We went through sunny days
And also stormy weather.

But sharing my life with you
Brought out the best in me
How I miss our life together
On this our 61st Anniversary.

Thank you for all those precious years, Honey.

“ Mom spent most of her time thinking about and serving others, especially her family. Her marriage will be a lasting legacy that has and will impact her children, grand children and the generations to follow. Thank you Mom for the way that you loved us and the way that you adored Dad. It is something I will never forget.

I love you and miss you.

Happy anniversary!

“ She was a wonderful person who loved her family and friends very much. Always ready to help others in need. Uncle Joe and Aunt Maryann gave my sister and myself wonderful memories and made themselves available if we needed anything. She will be missed. Happy Anniversary, Aunt MaryAnn

“ My meme. It's taken long to post because it is hard for me to spend time thinking about you. I focus on all the good times and try not to regret all the occasions I missed out on. I know you forgive me and loved me all the same, even more because of my struggles. You were stern when I needed you stern and you were compassionate when I just needed someone to understand. Thank you for everything you gave me. Thank you for being my example. I love the way you loved. Everywhere you went, everyone you met you truly and sincerely loved them and cared for them. Your heart is my favorite about you and I will live out my life in love as you did. I miss you. I miss you more than I have ever missed anyone. Losing you is something I didn't think I could bare but God has kept me strong and blessed me with an amazing family to support me and love me through this tragedy. You created such a beautiful family. Because of you and poppop we will have generations of incredible people on this earth. Happy 60th anniversary. Gosh I think back to your 50th..... I was such a mess. I was so looking forward to making it up to you with this celebration but I know the way I live each day in honor of your life and your memory is my amends to you. We are all taking care of each other. Your daughter is incredible and a super hero. She does too much. "Luckily her and daddy are going next weekend to enjoy time together and relax-they both deserve it. I love you meems. You are with me everywhere I go and I will never ever forget what you have taught me. Enjoy every moment in heaven. Live it up! Dance and sing and go wherever you want whenever you want by yourself!! You have always been my angel

“ I miss you MaryAnne! What wonderful memories of our Bible study! Your knowledge and wisdom greatly enriched my life. And just talking about Philadelphia and our Italian families brought much laughter and memories. Thank you for calling me when I didn't feel well, your hospitality hosting the study , good advice for my relationship with my children, and the extra little gifts at Christmas. So so much you gave to all! Your family and friends were truly blessed having you in their lives. Truly you are free from pain and with the Lord. But I still miss you and love you.
To Joe and all the Shennett family, my prayers and thoughts are with you daily.

“ It's hard to believe that you aren't here any more, there is a hole in our bible study group that will never be filled again, you are sorely missed.

One of God's promises is that you are in no more pain and for that I am grateful.

Until we meet again and walk together on those streets of gold.

“ Thinking of you you, Mom as Valentines Day approaches. Thank you and Dad for our beautiful family.

“ Meme,

I'm afraid that I'll forget the way your voice sounded or the way you use to say "I love you." While our time here on earth was short but I know our time together will be forever in heaven. I can't wait to see you again.

Taylor Shennett - February 08, 2017 at 06:10 PM

“ It's been a little over four months, now, since my dear friend, MaryAnne, has gone away and it still seems so unreal to me. I sure do miss seeing her sweet face, her smile, and especially hearing that laugh of hers. But I know that God has her in His glory and that she is resting in peace. Her life is a beautiful memory and she is deep in my heart where her memory will always be kept.

Joe, you are always in my thoughts, in my heart, and in my prayers. I know that your memories of MaryAnne, the love and friendship that you shared, are treasures that you carry with you always. You and your family were and still are an inspiration. Praying that all of you are still leaning on and continue to take comfort in each other, in your friends, and in the happy memories of her.

Love,
Kathy G.

“ Happy Birthday, Honey. This is the 1st time in 61 years that we have been apart on your birthday. Throughout those years, I have written many poems to you on your birthdays. So on this, your 81st birthday, I am writing the poem I wrote on your 75th Birthday. I think it was one of your favorites:

MY CONVERSATION WITH GOD

Why don't You hear my prayer
Can it be that You don't care
If I just had my way
On this, her special day
She'd rise up from her chair
And begin to walk everywhere
She wouldn't need a cane
Nor would she have any pain.

Then my Father said to me
My son, I hear your plea
But your ways are not Mine
And now is not the time
I, too, love Mary Anne
But I have a better plan
She may not dance anymore
But her spirit can still soar
Her weakness, I'll replace
With power by My Grace
She was made to inspire
Those who have lost desire
She will bring joy and hope
To those who cannot cope
Her chair will be My Throne
and she'll never be alone
She will let her light shine
To show that she is Mine.

Father, you've opened my eyes
And helped me to realize
If we focus on our weakness
It will only bring us bleakness
But if we keep focused on You
More than we ask for comes true.

Your loving husband,
Joe
