“ Mickie took care of my last 3 dogs - it was bittersweet because when she came to pick them up for a visit the dog was so excited to see her I felt like I was doing something wrong. Her love for all animals demonstrated that humans can love as unconditionally as dogs - I will miss he greatly

“ We were greatly saddened to hear of Mickie's passing. She was a warm and wonderful person, who greatly loved the many, many animals, she cared for so much, including our cats and dogs. It was a privilege to know her and we, along with her many friends and clients, will greatly miss her.

Rest in peace, Mickie. Thanks for everything. And give Rocky a big hug for us, when you see him again, across that Rainbow Bridge.

With respect and affection,

Dr. Bill & Judy Stillwell

“ We are so sad to hear of Mickie's passing. She was such a warm and loving person. She was adored by our beagles, first Morgan and then Maddy. A trip to spend time with Mickie was always a happy occasion for these girls. Mickie would pull her car up to our house and as soon as I opened my front door, Maddy would run and jump into Mickie's back seat, which Mickie learned to have open for her! She will be missed and always remembered with love and gratitude. RIP dear Mickie.

“ We started this "road trip" in Milwaukee in 1969 and by early 1970, we were in Miami. I have never looked back or regretted this friendship of over 50 years. You were my bright shining light for all of my life! Never once have I come to you where you have turned me away and I am incredibly grateful for your friendship all of these years. My heart is heavy with grief but I know you are in a better place with those that went before you. We will meet again one day but know until that time that I loved you, as did many others. Rest in peace my dearest friend - you will be missed very, very much.

“ I knew Mari in high school and we kept track of each other until she moved to the Daytona area. About three years ago I 'found' her again after a long period of time. It was like 50 years had never passed between us. We were never able to have that cup of coffee we talked about many times and to think I was only as far away as Oviedo. I have missed you all thjese years my dear friend and never gave up the quest to find you. I'll continue to miss you and will always love you dear friend. May you rest in peace and in God's arms.
