

Robert Kent Burt

October 16, 1955 - September 30, 2019

Robert Kent Burt of Longwood Fl, passed away early September 30, 2019 at the age of 63 while surrounded by loved ones.

Bob was born in Ohio on October 16, 1955 to Joann and Eugene Earl Burt. He relocated to Florida and followed his career in telecommunications engineering for Siemens in which he retired over 20 years later. Then he was able to work part time while enjoying more of his hobbies like fishing, riding his motorcycle and spending time with family.

He was married to Diana Rose Dorazio on February 21, 1981.

He is survived by his wife Diana Burt, children and their spouses Todd & Tara Burt, Kevin & Lisa Burt and Matthew & Cortney Burt, grandchildren Ava, Braeden, Aislyn, Brynlee and Callie. Brothers, Sisters, and many nieces, nephews, cousins and countless friends he has gained along the way.

The funeral service will be held at Nativity Catholic Church in Longwood Florida on Saturday October 12, 2019 at 11:00 am with celebration of life immediately following at Reiter Park in Longwood Fl.

Bob was an adventurous but loving family man that would always be there for his three boys and could be found on weekends cruising the back roads with Diana on the back of his motorcycle. As time went by and the family grew his free time included making memories with all his grandchildren.

Bob, the man, who lived life on his own terms and asked questions later, delivered homemade cinnamon rolls, gave the best hugs, had the best laugh and smile that could make anyone feel better; he will be greatly missed.

“ There is no words to help heal your hearts. I can't say I'm sorry or know how you feel because I don't! God heals that I know! Rest in HIS arms.

“ Bobby,

I found out this afternoon that you passed away. I would have never expected that here I would be sitting typing you a goodbye.... We never imagine days like this do we; we tend to go through life oblivious, taking for granted friendships, and precious time... However I hope in life you always knew how much I admired and respected you. How grateful I was getting sent to Oviedo so I could walk away knowing I made a friend. You are a special kind of person with a huge heart and an amazing smile that always brightened my day. You still owe me that beer and when my time comes Ill be looking for ya. We will have some catching up to do!

For now thou I feel heavy hearted and so sad for your wife and children. I have navigated the loss of a father, & witnessed my mom lose her bestfriend, her husband. This is the part of the journey I can never truly understand. But I am firm in the belief that love goes on.

With our deepest sympathy; Mike and I pray that in these tough moments God gives those who were touched by you most the courage and strength to manage through the days ahead.

Thank you for extending the gift of friendship to us.... You are missed deeply; but will never be forgotten.

“ Dad,
How do I put a life time of cherished memories into words? To start, I want to emphasize how supportive you were of me and how much that meant. In my younger years, you came to my games and watched me play. Made a tradition, that I now carry with my girls, out of monster truck events. We had a blast driving everything from fancy cars to tractors together. Throughout the years, we supported each other in many ways. Anytime I called, you were always there and happy to be. You worked right along side me when it came to projects on my home or building my business. You taught me to live life and ask questions later, bigger is always better and family is most important. I'm going to miss our time together immensely. We always shared a good laugh and most importantly I will miss your famous cinnamon roll, you would even personally deliver. I love you so much dad, until we see each other again.
Your son Kevin.
