

Ruth C. Eason

January 8, 1925 - October 18, 2020

Ruth C. Eason, 95, passed away from natural causes on October 18, 2020 in Orlando, Florida. A long-time resident of Macon, GA, she will be remembered by her friends and family for her sense of humor, friendly disposition and kind concern for others. Ruth thoroughly enjoyed her job of many years at Mercer University's Stetson Memorial Library and after a brief retirement, chose to continue sharing her talent at the Bibb County Law Library, where lawyers and judges alike made her acquaintance and valued her service and guidance. One of her favorite quotes, that she often shared with her children was "Find a job you love, and you'll never work a day in your life!" She is pre-deceased by her daughter, Dixie Morgan, and is survived by her daughter, Margaret Lane and her husband Rick of Winter Park, FL and son, Clark Eason, and his wife Debbie of Greer, SC, four grand-children and ten great-grand-children. A graveside service is scheduled for family in Acworth, GA.

“ Aunt Ruthie was special to me. As a child, I remember going to her house with my parents and visiting with her and my cousins. I also remember stopping by and seeing her in Macon years ago at her condo. I am also so thankful we were able to visit her twice in the last few years in Florida, even though we live up in South Carolina. On one of our visits, Aunt Ruthie gave us a beautiful painting of a rooster she did, and we proudly displayed it in our kitchen. She was quite an artist! Aunt Ruthie enjoyed life, and her smile always lit up the room She was such a friendly, beautiful lady with a great personality. We will miss her so very much. I thought of her often and wish Pat and I could have seen her more. We will miss you Aunt Ruthie!

“ Ruth and I had only a few opportunities to chat, but the time I remember most fondly was when we enjoyed the engagement reception for David and Abby together talking about how similar our lives were. Although Ruth's hearing was limited, we shared laughs and discovered our mutual affinity for Moscato. Ruth was a lovely, gracious lady I was so privileged to know.

“ We love you Grandma Ruth! Such wonderful memories of visiting Spring Street in Macon, big breakfasts with hot buttered biscuits, her condo by Chichesters, snappy bites, big Thanksgiving dinners and I remember whining that I wanted a pair of her pretty clip-on earrings and she gave them to me. I have a lot of her art done with colored pencils in our house! We will miss you and look forward to all being together again in heaven

“ Ruth was a lovely person with a warm heart and sharp intellect. I enjoyed her company very much, and so thankful she lived nearby the past five years. I will miss her dearly but comforted to know she trusted Jesus for her salvation.

“ You and Mom were SO devoted to making sure she had all she needed and wanted from taking her to Dr appts, to getting her strawberry preserves and pound cake, to fixing anything that wasn't working in her home.
