“ I had the privilege of studying with Bill 30+ years ago when he taught at Seabury-Western. I'm grateful for his support and encouragement of my graduate studies and teaching vocation. He cared deeply about his students, and about the church.

“ Bill instructed 2 generations in my family. First my Uncle studied under him his senior year at Seminario Episcopal del Caribe (since he transferred there after being kicked out of VTS for marching at Selma). Then I had the good fortune three decades later to study under Bill during his final years at Seabury-Western. Truly a gentleman, a gentle man, and a scholar. Well done thou good and faithful servant.

“ We attended St. Richards with Bill at the 8 a.m. service. He was always so kind and friendly. He will be missed. Heaven is a better place. Blessings and Peace to his family, Mary & Al Cole+

“ I have nothing but love and admiration for Bill. One day, when I was working in the Sacristy, Bill came in. He had just returned from the hospital where he had anointed a person who was ill. When he handed me the oil stock, I noticed that it was chrism. I looked up at Bill and said the Lord was not going to know if the person was coming or going. After a bewildered moment he smiled. The warmth of his pastoral nature burst forth. Kindness and gentleness. God bless you, Bill.

“ A kind and gentle teacher and mentor. He brought church history alive for me and helped me to understand the true value of Anglicanism. He truly was a gift to everyone who knew him.

“ Bill was my mentor and friend. He inspired my work the last 30 years on Richard Hooker. He was a gentle evocative teacher. My wife Kathleen also studied with Bill. I did my first sabbatical with Bill and got to see him for several summers there after. He was a great gift to all who knew him.

“ Bill's knowledge and sense of humor made the English Reformation come alive for those of us fortunate enough to be his students. May light perpetual shine upon him.

“ I am at a loss for words on hearing of Bill's death. I was able to take all but one of the 16 that he taught at Seabury-Western, and remember his energy and passion that he brought to the classroom. Even more so was his remarkable pastoral sense with seminarians who could be stressing out about almost anything imaginable. He made a wonderful difference for all of us who were fortunate enough to be one of his students. Fr. Razz Waff, DMin, BCC, SWTS '83

“ We will never forget Christmas mornings with Santa Bill, in his hat, passing out presents and the wonderful Christmas breakfasts he prepared and served with love. I also loved game nights with Bill and Luisa. Bill loved to play games as much as I did! He and Luisa "adopted" the children and grandchildren of Luisa's cousin when we moved to the Chicago area and were the best grandparents a child could hope for. Our children felt so loved! "Papa Bill" was one of the kindest people anyone could ever hope to meet and we have been so blessed to have known him. We will always love you Bill.
