“My girlfriend and I first met Aaron when I was on Covid duty with the Army National Guard. He was our waiter while eating at the Hyde Park Daytona Steakhouse. After Aaron greeted us we began having a great conversation. So good that I asked for his phone number and said if we ate at the restaurant again we wanted him as our waiter.

Unfortunately I got off orders so we didn't get a chance to go back to the restaurant but Aaron and I continued to stay in touch texting each other every once in a while. I recently heard of his passing after sending him a Happy Thanksgiving message. It's saddened me to hear that a person I only met once but who I instantly had a connection with left this earth so soon. RIP Aaron, it was so great getting to know you while I did and my prayers go out to you and your family.

“ I wish to express my sincere sympathies and prayers to the entire Belboda family during this time of loss. May God be with you and may you be comforted by Word of God including your family and friends.

I was shocked to hear about Aaron's untimely passing. He was a jovial and professional minded individual who was always dressed immaculate, "clean cut" in appearance and walked with a "swagger"...:-) We grew up in the same "era" (partied in our teen years at Warwick Sec and Warwick Bowl) and we chatted routinely on the street when we bumped into one another in later years. I have fond memories of Aaron having a very kind spirit along with that "million dollar" smile to say the least. Much much more can be said but I'll end it here....

Again, it was a great pleasure for me to know Aaron during his time in Bermuda and know he is greatly missed.

May God bless you and keep you.

Continued prayers. Prov 3:5-6

“ Aaron, my dear friend, I can't believe you just disappeared like this. What you left to me is self-blame for the rest of my life. I blame myself why you took me to get vaccinated twice. I try to persuade you to get vaccinated. , But you did not follow my persuasion, which eventually led you to embark on a road of no return, really 😞, regret not forcing you to be vaccinated. This regretful pain tormented me all the time, until the end of my life, and your departure made Nancy miserable. At this moment, I can understand her mood very well. She loves you very much, but her personality is very self-reliant. She did not tell you that she always loves you deep in her heart, and you, like her, did not tell her the truth in her heart. It's because of your self-improvement and pride that caused you to love each other, but you didn't come together again. If you two can take a step forward individually, it won't make Nancy so painful, really she She is a good woman and a good mother. Your son is also very strong. With the help of his mother, he will handle the things after you leave step by step. My dear friend Aaron, I hope you will go well all the way and hope to be in heaven. No more pain, and I hope you will bless Nancy and your son AJ in heaven. I will try my best to help you take care of them. There are too many things to say. I don't know where to start. During the four years of knowing you , We quarreled, I want to say something here today, I'm sorry, it's my biggest regret that I didn't protect your life, but you know I've done my best, Nancy, and your son AJ, we've done my best , I don't regret knowing you, I hope you will no longer be bullied in heaven, no more pain, no more running around for life so hard,

“ “ For life and more” you always told me....I never thought you’d leave so soon. So unexpected, so heart breaking. Thinking about all the wonderful times together, the bond that remained because of Aj. I wish you were still around to get even closer as father and son, watch him reach his goals, get married, have kids, anything really. How I wish we could bring you back somehow. I hope you know I tried so hard even until the end. I’m glad i got to see you , but it wasn’t to say goodbye... I begged you to fight.... I hope you’ll be happy wherever you go and that we get to see you again someday , in our new lives somewhere. You asked me a few weeks before you went into the hospital “ you still love me, don’t you?” I didn’t answer but I’m sure you knew.... Rest In Peace. Don’t worry, we’ll be ok...You will continue to be proud of Aj. I’ll continue to be the best mom ever. .. For life and more, Aaron... Always in my heart... Love always, Nans

To the Belboda Family. When I heard Aaron was not well and was fighting for his life my heart sunk with disbelief, nooooo I said, not Aaron! I am trying to wrap my head around his passing. I still feel like a part of your family and I am experiencing your loss too. Extending my deep and heartfelt condolences. May God be with you during this time.
