“ Sleep My Sister wish you sweet sleep, my sister dear.

*Although there's so much that you've left bare
I hate that you had to endure such pain
On my mind, your saddened eyes have left a stain.*

*I want to know what crossed your mind
Unspoken words you've left behind
Undone things we'll never do
No sharing thoughts you never knew.*

*A peace has fallen upon your head
A taste of sorrow we have been fed
It really is like a hole in our lives
One swiftly dug but carved out by knives.*

*But I have hope that those sleeping will rise
The Bible says that God will open their eyes.
No suffering, sickness, yes not even pain,
Those who did good, eternal life they'll gain.*

*So... sleep on my sister, sleep tight
For now with you the sky is night.
But after night will come daybreak
Therefore I will wait hoping to see you awake.*

YOU WILL ALWAYS BE IN MY HEART

*YOUR LOVING BROTHER

“ Our darling Sister Kike,
It was really difficult to come to terms with your passing on to the Great beyond.
We were so hopeful that you will be healed,
well and spring back to your sweet person, nature and smile..... But indeed, you are healed, well and alive in the great beyond, rejoicing with the saints in the PRESENCE AND PALACE OF OUR KING AND SAVIOR.
Your INFECTIOUS SMILE and FACE will brighten anyone, any day, anywhere.
Sleep on beloved in the bosom of our LORD AND SAVIOR.
The Lord will surely uphold, bless, uplift, renew and strengthen your husband, children and entire family including friends in Jesus' Name according to HIS PROMISE in Psalm 116 v 15.

SHE TRAVELLED TO THE PALACE OF OUR KING, JESUS CHRIST.

My dear Daughter and Kid Sister, Kike, it was like yesterday when you were always strapped to my back wanting to sleep. Neither on Mum's back or any other's but on my small dirty back that was always scrubbed waiting to receive you. You would pee and empty your bowels right there and when Mum removes you, you would yell protesting our separation. Such was the bond we developed right from your early days in this world. Up till your last day on earth, you always stir whenever you heard my voice even on phone. Such was it in your "Comma" state when I called you all the way from Nigeria. Now my back is empty, Kike! How I wished you would yell, protest and come back to me, my kid sister! How I pray that you would kick back to life, just as you used to do when you woke up from sleep on my back!!! But NO...!!!, you have travelled to meet our Father and Lord, Jesus Christ.

Till we meet and part no more, I will continue remembering your voice saying "Brother Femi, e ma gbagbe mi, e ma fi mi sile o" (Brother Femi do not forget me, do not leave me to myself).

My baby I did not leave you; you left me for a greater, higher and more friendly Father and Brother, Jesus Christ. I have no choice but to let go.

Adieu my daughter; adieu my Sister.

“ Pastor Abidemi was a woman of faith, a missionary, a woman of prayer, gentle, caring and kind hearted. On behalf of all missionaries,, the board of Directors and the president of. AMFC we thank God for a life well lived and of service to God and humanity. You were a worshipper on earth and a prayer warrior. I am sure you have taken your position in Heaven doing much just the same. .To Blessed House and the family we love and we are praying for you. God bless you all.

Dear Kike,

My loved sister-in-law I am finding it difficult to come to terms with your death. I am in the process of grieving but at the same time the holy spirit is our comforter. I am confident that you are in a better place. He will give Pastor Charles and the children the fortitude and the strenght to bear this pain. Kike Abidemi, Adieu, Sun Re.Thanks for everything you did for me. Mrs Sade Otegbeye
