“ Kat Talley - High school friend posted a condolence Dear Mr. and Mrs. Cooper, I would like to say that I'm terribly sorry for your loss. Adam was a very talented young man. Adam and I lost touch after high school. We sat next to each other in ceramics and economics every day. He would also give me a ride home after school sometimes. He always made me think outside of the box, and he was always looked at as "the weird guy". But he was a good friend and we liked spending time together. Tonight is Friday, June 20th. I was just informed of his passing 30 minutes ago by my mom. Call it a coincidence, but just yesterday I was going through old papers from high school and came upon old drawings that he sketched for me. I started thinking about him. I'm so sorry that I didn't make it in time for the funeral. If I had known I would have been there to say goodbye. If you don't have the time or effort to reply to this email, I understand. I wish the best for you and your family. Sincerely, Kat Talley

“ Emily Culley - former teacher posted a condolence I taught Adam Spanish in the Lower School at Shorecrest, and my son John and Hadley were classmates. I had the good fortune to run into Adam, his mother and sister at an outdoor art show in the last year or so. I am so very sorry to hear of Adam's too-soon departure from this Earth. He was a wonderful little boy whose fascination with KISS, in the third grade [!], was understood by only a few of his pedestrian teachers. He was charming, sensitive, and clever... and I regret that I must now use the past-tense to describe him. I wish there was some way he could know that I thought he was a great kid. I hardly know what to say to you, his dear family. I hope your memories of him are the best and that he was and lived a happy young man.

“ Kolleen Kellin - 3rd Grade teacher at Shorecrest posted a condolence Though many years have passed, I felt moved to write you and let you know how sorry I was to read of Adam's passing. He was one of those students who will always have a special place in my heart , when I reflect on my years of teaching. He often spoke of his love for music, especially th band Kiss. He was so creative, smart and witty. He will be greatly missed. I feel fortunate to have known him. I hope your memories and knowing he touched the lives of many bring you peace.
