“ On Monday morning at 2:45 am my sister Beth and I were with our mom when she peacefully passed from this world into the loving arms of our Lord and Savior Jesus. As I described it to our children the next morning, it was sad, peaceful and joyous all at the same time. She is now at rest with no more sorrow and no more pain. She is reunited with all the saints who have gone before us, especially her husband Earle, mother Mary, father Charles and granddaughter Hailey.

"Blessed are the peacemakers for they shall be called children of God". This scripture verse exemplifies my mom's life. She truly is a child of God.

Your mother was an inspiration in many ways -- a model of patience, support, encouragement and love. Keith and I will miss her gentle nature and acceptance of all that life offers.

I remember Nancy as smiling and happy, easy to be around and someone who I could be friends with. May she rest in peace through the mercy of God.
