“ Al was my oldest and dearest friend. We both went to Edgewater High School. we were working at a job together after school in 1960 and were best of friends ever since.. We really had a great time sharing dreams and just being good buddies. Alan's mother made the best hamburges. We went with his dad a few times and helped him with collecting money from his washer and dryer business. I met his brother at Lackland Air Force base during boot camp. He had two sisters that he adored. Alan was a hard worker and a dreamer. We both said the best thing we ever did was when he married Linda and I married Myrna. After he met our lord jesus im sure he said where is the gilf course. Al will always be my best friend and he will be missed.
