“ Dada, panky daddy, franky spanky, n.....
N..... That's from Me Alana panky daddy.
Happy fathers day.. you should be Here with us. We are all getting so big.. mommy misses you a lot. Believe me.. she has your picture in her car..... We all miss you. Panky. Logan is confused now. He thinks we dropped u off at home just sometime this week and every time the phone rings, he asks If it's his dadda.
Mommy doesn't know what to say when he gets old enough. But every time we pass that block to see Natalie. Logan says let's go see my daddy. We r tell him your still at work. And he keeps fAlling for it. . It's makes us all so sad. Aunt Brandi hurts everyday for you still... Why panky we realised finally that you aren't gonna come home to anymore. We r to young. Mama tells us we will all be together again one day ok in a very long time. She tries to occupy our minds with other things. Mama loves us. She does not want us to feel sad. But we love u and miss u all of us. We all know you watch over us everyday. And that has become what helps us feel comfortable and feel less tears. We love all of us so much Dada.
Please try to let us know u r still around us likebu used to before.
We will never forget you . How could we our baby brother calls you Dada. Love all of us. Happy fathers day. You are always in our hearts and our minds. Forever we all live you. Have a happy fathers day on the clouds tomorrow. And know that we will be waving to you and god and all the Angels. One day we will LI meet again.. and be “ Ok this is getting to be to much for me ... Every single time I type in your name I close my eyes real hard and hope u picture and name does not appear. I think I have to come out of the wonderland that this could possibly a dream. We aren't at hanging out at magic kingdom . But I will tell u Logan is.. ed picked up Alana today . I said ur dad is here. Now this broke Mr Alana Victoria and ed Into tears. This poor little boy thinks it's only been a couple of days and u are at home with Chris. He was so amazingly happy u should hVe seen his face. He said mommy yay daddy is coming to get me..... We all broke into tears for him. And I had to be the devil who told him no honey that is Alanas daddy. No one has any idea the pain I endure on a weekly basis with logan. Because no matter what I try to tell him He insists that u are at home with Chris. I can't do this it's so hard for me .. Nd its only gin a get. Lot harder as time goes on. And I am the one left to pick up Ll the pieces for this baby boy .. the baby boy u wanted so badly you begged me to have this lil boy .. u never had an opportunity to have a child or a son before me. Ok I understand that so he is here now. And what do u dou leave him . Just drop off the face of this earth on that poor lil guy who still knows u as his dad. Well I'm sorry to tell you. But when u are a parent ur problems become secondary to ur child's. We all could have helped u had u only reached out . Instead you choose to take the weak way out and for this I will never forgive u. And the girls Still to this day don't understand what the he'll happened. I let down so mNy people . And for who your so called mom. Who never have a shit about u. U were blessed with a baby boy that u were told u could never have and 2 lil girls who really love u and still do. U also had me and Brandi Nd Jeff. No excuse Frank .. I don't want to hear anymore excuseses . I ended up worse than the people who lost their kids. U left ur precious treasuries forever.. not fair very very selfish. I am furious with u. And forever ok have to look at that little boys sad and confused eyes . And try to figure out ways to pick up the mess u left all of us in. You should have toughened up and got some help. You could have had a great life.. your selfish decision has damaged more people than u could ever. Ever realise. Especialy ur son the girls Jeff , brandi and Caleb. And me..... But I guess your pain was so much deeper than anyone else who chose to get help and chose life. Ha Frank is that what u would tell me if u were here. This message is for the kids . I suffer pain every day never could I even think or consider ur choice. I put my babies all 3 of them before my pain and my weakness and every time I do it makes me stronger. But that pain in mg babies eyes I will forever see. Thank you. For destroying ur only son and only child that god blessed u with.

I'm gonna be 3 in July . U won't be here to see me grow. It makes my mommy cry sometimes. None of us understand and never will.
Mommy still thinks one day u just might come home . Daddy please talk to my mommy in dream so she can c u and talk to u. She misses u so much. I were her best friend and mine. I'm probably

“ I love you so much ponch. This has not gotten any easier at all. I miss you dearly and you are always on my mind. Every morning on my way to work I listen to our song. Needless to say, by the time I get to work I have been crying the entire way and my make up is a mess. I do this because its comforting to me, we have so many memories with that song, and I talk to you. This morning on the way, I was crying as usual and I told you that it would be so much easier for me if I knew that you are okay and at peace. You know I have worried about you your entire life, and now even in death. I asked you to please let me know that you are okay. Just at that moment, my visor flew down, the garage door opener and some papers fell, knocking into the rosary I have for you making it swing. It was so crazy, it was out of no where and that visor never falls. Even crasier, the next line that I hear said, " theres no need to see you crying, I am here to ease your pain." I remember that you ALWAYS sang that line to me :(I really hope that was you letting me know that you are okay. You are in my heart daily. We have a picture framed from your spot on the river that is absolutely beautiful. Its hanging right in the living room so that you are always with us. I like you there. I haven't been able to bring myself to even go down the hallway to your old room because that's where all your stuff is. Theres no way that I can handle that. I was reading one of your letters the other day and you said that what makes you happiest is to see me doing good and happy. You said that you were proud of me and mike for making something out of our lives considering where we came from. Ponch, I promise, I am going to continue to make you proud. And I want you to know that we will always be here for Logan. I will never understand why you did what you did, I still cant comprehend it. I still pray every night that I am going to wake up from this nightmare and you will be here. With your goofy laugh and beautiful blue eyes. I love you brother. This is really really hard for us. We still haven't been able to tell Caleb. I miss you soooooooooooooooooo much!!!

“ Frank, I'm sorry but the way u left us was ur choice. I can not bear to watch or hear my children call or cry for u any longer. What u did was your choice. U wanted to leave us. Obviously that means u didn't want us anymore. U left ur only son. We are moving it's time I start our lives over. Logan should never know the heartache that u choose to leave him me and his sisters behind for no certain reason. At all . I am done . done crying done watching Alana air hug u and talk to then sky. Done listening. To Logan walk around house and call ur name . . I though u would cherish our son. Instead u just left him. But in a much more severe way then u were left. I hope u are proud and hope u are happy. Me and the. Kids have been in pain long enough. We did nothing wrong. I can not stand by and bear anymore. I hope u are happy with your decision. . I will never have the heart to tell Logan that u choose to leave him. I am done with this pain . u hurt more people than u could ever imagine. I am now at the point of anger with u. Logan will grow up and I pray he never askes me any. Questions because I choose to move on and have no answers at this point . bye the way thank you for begging for a child and leaving him behind.. We miss u. And we loved. U we obviously were not loved back. The kids have suffered more than enough. For your ridiculous permanent decision. They deserve better..

I am trying my best to keep things moving, but you are such a big part of me that it is so hard. I have always thought i was tough and strong but i don't feel like that any more. i feel completely shattered and unsure of everything. I just don't understand. You have gotten through so much in your life only to give up. Caleb mentions you all the time and i have still not been able to tell him that you are no longer with us. He is going to be crushed. I opened the drawer and found a grocery list that you wrote with a :) and i just lost it, i love you brother- more than you could have ever imagined. “ Frank. I have been trying so hard to get thru things without u. I lost you and my precious Victoria. In. A matter of 2 weeks. Why did you just leave us all alone like this.. U made life. So much harder for so many people. Alana was laying on the bed pretending to hug u yesterday . she misses you soon much u have no idea. She look up and talks to u every single day. She really loves u. And logan still calls ur name at least Onve or twice a day. Poor Lil guy he has no daddy now. U and u were all we had . why did u leave your son like this. We all have to deal with thisbpain now for the rest of our lives. This was not the answer . not at all. Out should have told me ur thoufhts I would have helped u. Nothing is ever that bad. Everyday is a new day. But this where u are now. This is permanent. There is no fixing this. I miss u soo much you really have no idea. Its such a weird empty feeling. I try to not even go to this site anymore. It's to painful for me. Every time I type in your name. I pray it won't appear. But. Every single time it does and reality kicks in hard . you are never coming home are you. God we all miss you so much . u were only 35 years old..... Ur life was just begining and u had plenty people who live you. This pain cant be real .. Please make it go away, and then u come back. Every time I look at the clock its 10:13. Weird it happens every single day. I juat happen to look at that is the time am or pm. Happens every single day. There are just no more words. I just stare at your pictures and cry some days I do better than others. But today is really rough for me. We all love u and miss u..promise u can make this sick feeling for away.. Please

I try to keep things moving but everyday is a reminder that I wasn't able to be there for you knowing that you are gone. I always tried to do everything I could to look out for you and I failed. I try not to be depressed and think about it everyday but then I feel guilty when I realize that I'm trying to put this in the back of my mind. The holidays are right around the corner and as much as I would like to enjoy them I know that they are going to be miserable. I'm trying to be there for Brandi and I feel like I'm failing at that as well. I don't know how to be there for her, I don't know if we are supposed to talk about it everyday, I just don't know how to move forward. “ Meeting Frank when I was 16 is one of those memoirs that I will forever remember!!! We became the best of friends and quite inseparable for many many years. Out of all the friendships forged within my teenage years, mine with frank was one of the few that I still to this day feel was true. Even though our different life paths made us grow apart over these past 5-6 years, I still always felt that true friendship with him. He had my back always and forever as he did with so many others, never doing me any wrong over our 20 year friendship. I will NEVER forget his breathtaking smile with those baby blue eyes and the way he lit up every room he walked into. I truly pray that he has finally found the peace that has so eluded him here on earth and may his soul and spirit forever live on with his son.

“ Sue and I send our deepest condolences and prayers this day to you. The short time that we knew Frank there was nothing that he would not do to make you feel welcome or that he knew you forever. His big smile and bear hugs were always there when we saw him at Calebs birthday or even at the holiday. He always had a kind word to say to everyone he met. He will be sorely missed.

“ I love you so much uncle frank and miss you so much already. I'll never forget all the good times and how you always knew how to make me smile or laugh when I needed it the most. You were always so goofy and always reminded me not to get so down about certain people or things. I wish we got to spend more time together but I'm so glad I got to see you recently before this had to happen. I know your watching us and now we all have an angel by our side forever until we all get to be with you again. I hope your at peace but I also hope you know how many people love and care about you. Rest in peace <3

“ Frank there were so many amazing memories I have of you, your contagious smile your hysterical laugh. Your humor and carefree attitude that everyone adored. You had the biggest heart and loved hard. As I look through photos so many memories flood my mind, our first place together, our wild nights at the clubs but most of all the love we had for each other. My heart is broken to think of what you had to have been going through, my stomach turns to think of you gone, I hope you have the peace that you so strongly needed. We all loved you so much- The Lee's

“ Aside from him always being the life of the party I'll never forget when we lived in the same complex in Lake Mary I was walking to the grocery store when someone started yelling "hey cracka what are you doing" and when he realized I had to walk he made me get in the car with him and gave me a ride pretty much every night I needed to go from then on. may seem like nothing to some but was huge at the time.

“ Many years ago my mom took in these 3 kids that became my brothers and my sister. Frankie was younger than me and just didn't understand but soon opened up and became part of the family. I loved him than and always will. Frankie I know that you are no longer hurting and you are all better now, I am glad for that but you will truly be missed by all. I love you brother. ..

“ Ponch,

Words can never express how devastated I am by your loss. I can not accept that I will never see or talk or laugh or dance or be goofy with you ever again. You have always been a big part of me. We have a closeness like no other and I can't wait until the day I get to see you again. My heart is completely broken. I love you so much!! I hope you have the peace that you never had and that you are smiling and laughing with the angels. My life will never be the same :{ Rest in Peace my brother xoxoxoxoxoxo
