“ Very sorry to see this today.....my thoughts and prayers are with his entire family.

My memories of Al were from our softball days at Red Bug Park way back when. So much fun playing with he and his boys..... he was our pitcher and not afraid to take a hit stopping the ball from going up the middle.....(he didn't let a few loose teeth and stitches keep him down)....

One of the kindest and nicest family..... That's what I most remember him for.

Larry..... always around winter park still.....let's have lunch one day.....Gery Tremaine.

“ From Butcher clan to all of the wonderful Land clan, we love you and will miss Bubby dearly! What a true “gentle - man” and father he was to you all! We so enjoyed the family reunion a few years back but it was good to see him with Betty when he came up! We were all blessed in our family by his life! Love you all!
