

Alberto Allen Bucholz

March 13, 1989 - July 9, 2024

Alberto Allen Bucholz, 35, passed away Tuesday, July 9th in Orlando, Florida.

Albert was born March 13th, 1989 at Mercy Hospital in Orlando. He attended Sadler Elementary, Teague Middle School, and Brantley and Lyman High schools. He learned the plumbing trade at his father's side when he was just a toddler and went to work for his parents' plumbing company. Customers would often question his experience due to his young age, but he could run circles around anyone in the industry. Albert had a lust for life and lived it to the fullest. He was sweet, kind, funny, grumpy, and always eager to help someone out. He will be sorely missed by everyone who knew him.

Albert is survived by his father and (step) mother, Alberto "Tito" and Diane Fazzolare Bucholz, his mother Elaine Remington, daughter Gia Sanchez, sisters ToniRae Holmes and Bobbie Bucholz. Also survived by aunts Luisa Sirp, Lorraine Nagbe, Selena Bucholz, and Teresa Remington. Uncles Jesse Bucholz, Richard Remington, Robert Remington, Michael Fazzolare, and Dominick Fazzolare. Albert is survived by nieces Lily, Hailey, Ayla, and Carla, and nephew Connor. Albert had many, many cousins and friends. You know who you are and that he loved all of you. Special shout out to his BFF cousin Peter Fazz.

Our world is a little sadder without him. And calmer. Man, he was a lot.

“ Berto was my brother a giving friend we first met at Lyman High School and skated together went to tons of shows. Shared so many laughs and great times we never realize we never really had any bad times. Love you Berto our last moments together were wonderful and I miss you so much sucks how now we won't grow old together. We never got to get tattoos together but at least I can just start my sleeve of all the authentic relationships tattooed on my leg. “ RIP Alberto 😞😞. Alberto was a friend of my daughter's back in League Middle School. They fell out of touch for several years, and then ran into each other one day, and started talking again. He used to come over to my husband and I's house to watch the UFC fights and hang out. This is where I took this picture. I'm so sorry you're gone Alberto. Cheers man.... we'll all see you again someday ❤️

Thank you for being a best friend to my Son Chris...so many ways you were a huge blessing to our family...especially all those service calls you helped me out for my Mom from her trailer leaking all the time...u wedged yourself underneath that thing like a pro and had it fixed in no time...you barely charged anything but your smile sharing..your all set..no more leaks was like a miracle every time for my Mom! Deepest sympathy love, hugs and prayers through this very sad time to all family and friends 🙏❤

“ This is very heavy on my heart to write as its hard to express and show how much I feel for my brother & what we had. First things first, my brother was not just my brother, he was truly my best friend & will always be my #1. We were so close growing up & shared so much of the same interest, feelings, hopes & dreams. Creating mud pies and digging holes in the back yard to see how deep we go and jump in. Jamming out to music no matter where we were, laughing, sharing memories of the past and creating new ones in the process. He has always held the most special place in my heart that no one can ever change. Berto was wild and rambunctious but had the most caring, loving heart for anyone who came across his path. He was not a person of judgement, he carried his heart on his sleeve. He gave me such wonderful fun memories that I will never forget & will always cherish. He was my life, my brother, my 1st best friend & I was his. I will miss the random calls just to talk, vent & just talk about our past, futures & plans. I will forever miss you but I know you will now always be with me no matter how close or far I am. Until I see you again brother, I love you always. <3 <3

“ The last five months of being your “honey bee” have been the best five months of my life. The dreams we shared and the places we were going to go. All the things, big and small we had planned are just going to happen at a different time for us. I know you will forever be with me and Kai. And I’m so happy for that. I have loved you for almost 20 years now and I have ALWAYS cherished the friendship that we’ve had. I will forever miss you, Freckles. I love you so very much. Please just know I’ll be waiting to see you and hold you again.

“ I just want to say Rest in Peace to my best friend and cousin Alberto, gone way too soon, we were supposed to get old and become Harley riders with big beards and guts. We always had the best times when hanging out and laughing uncontrollably at almost everything we did or said. Every weekend was always a new adventure of where we were going to ride our bikes to or what beach we were going to go fishing at, or going to the pool at his apartment complex and grilling some food for the day. Lots of memories and good times, way too many to list on here but you will be missed and it sucks to lose someone that you hang out with/ talk to almost every day. See you on the other side!!
