

Alexander Paul Beadling

February 6, 2010

Alexander Paul Beadling born February 6, 1992 passed February 6, 2010; Is now totally at peace of mind, body and soul.

He was the heart and soul of his mother Kelly, and loved by all that knew him. His smile would illuminate the room and warm every heart in it.

His stamina for life astonished everyone even at the end. He fought for years and it was a long hard battle.

He was a strong spirit and his strength awed everyone that knew him.

In lieu of flowers the family would like you to make a contribution to the Marty Lyons Foundation Inc. (326 West 48th Street New York, N.Y. 10036) which made Alex

“ Sara - Alex's hospice nurse posted a condolence I carry lots of Alex memories in my heart and they all make me smile. To know Alex is (present tense) to love him - it is that simple. Instead of sharing a specific Alex story, I like to say something about how Alex got to be so darn loveable. Kelly and I were commenting on how everyone, when describing Alex always mentioned his smile. In fact, after making the mold of her hand intertwined in Alex

“ Joan,Doug,Erika,Ciera and Chris Negretti - Friends posted a condolence Kelly there are no words that can express our sympathy for the loss of Alex. He is up in heaven with Jodi-Lynn and they are walking, running around and having a great time. Things that both could not do here on earth. They were our angels and will now be watching over us. We will always miss and love them very much.They will be a special part of us forever. Just always remember the legacy both of them have left and all of the hearts they have touched along the way. If you should ever need someone we will be here for you. Love the Negretti's

“ Liz Gonzalez - friend of Mindy Brunn posted a condolence There are really no words that can begin to describe how very special Alex was. He has inspired so many people to do better in their lives, and continues to do so even now. Though I never actually met Alex, I remember talking to him on the phone several times since he was a little boy. He never once failed to cheer me up when I felt a little down, and his laughter was absolutely infectious! My heart and prayers go out to your family in remembering this amazing kid who never gave up. And to his incredible Mom, Kelly, you are an amazing mother whose love shows no bounds and you are, without a doubt, the strongest woman I've ever met.

“ Deana Falconeri - Co-Worker of Mother posted a condolence Kelly - I am so sorry for your loss. May you find comfort in the following prayer. Dear Lord, Please help me in this time of loss and overwhelming grief. I don't understand why my life is filled with this pain and heartache. But I turn my eyes to you as I seek to find the strength to trust in your faithfulness. I will wait on you and not despair; I will quietly wait for your salvation. My heart is crushed, but I know that you will not abandon me forever. Please show me your compassion, Lord. Help me through the pain so that I will hope in you again. I believe this promise in your Word to send me fresh mercy each day. Though I can't see past today, I trust your great love will never fail me. Amen

“ Jane Fontaine - former teacher posted a condolence Dear Kelly, I am holding you in my heart. You gave your Alex such love and you let him know what a delight he was. He knew he was your star. I think the greatest thing is to know that you are someone's star and you gave him that. We are all thinking of what a joy Alex was and what a wonderful mom you are. Thank you for sharing him with us. You gave the best birthday party at school for Alex and included us. We are very lucky. Always, Janie

“Mindy Brunn - Cousin posted a condolence A Special Child by Sharon Harris You weren't like other children, And God was well aware, You'd need a caring family, With love enough to share. And so He sent you to us, And much to our surprise, You haven't been a challenge, But a blessing in disguise. Your winning smiles and laughter, The pleasures you impart, Far outweigh your special needs, And melt the coldest heart. We're proud that we've been chosen, To help you learn and grow, The job that you have brought us, Is more than you can know. A precious gift from Heaven, A treasure from above, A child who's taught us many things, But most of all- "Real Love" You have been my inspiration for as long as I can remember. A very special child that I have and always will love. We have been blessed to have you with us this long and though we miss you so, it's a relief to know you're FINALLY in a better place! God knows how much we will miss that smile and laughter. How we will miss you're sense of humor and attitude :) But most of all we will miss your fight for life, you're strength, you're will to live and your love for us all especially your momma. Thank you for being a very significant part of my life. I love you always and forever! Aunt Kelly, there are no words to even begin to say how sorry I am nor can I begin to understand what you are going through, but we both know that he is in a better place now and though that sucks for us, it's better for him. I am here for you to talk to, to listen and my shoulder is always here for you to cry on. I love you so very much!
