“ Ann Gronski - Cousin posted a condolence I remember Alice as a child before her family moved to Florida, playing with her at their house in Montdale. Jim and Jeannie, they are the memories I will keep forever. I wrote this poem for Alice. I hope it helps you through this time. An Angel Among Us In time we'll come to understand The reason that he took her hand And led her back to him that day A lonely angel far away. As a free spirit, she had lived her life Along with her husband, who adored his wife When work kept them apart, they would keep in touch With the sweet little love notes they loved so much. It must have been lonely, being apart Maybe time couldn't heal her broken heart Now hand in hand they're together again Walking along with their three best friends. For those who have loved her for so many years Their life may seem empty, they can't hold back the tears But as each day goes by another memory they share They can almost imagine, her standing right there. When tragedy happens, it is so hard to find A reason, an answer, some small peace of mind But hold on to your faith, and in God keep your trust Now this free spirit lives, as "An Angel Among Us". Love. Ann

“ Darren Osgood - Co-Worker posted a condolence Our sincere condolences to Alice's brother, sister and family. Alice was a much loved member of the booking crew at PCJ during the change of the millenium and will be sadly missed. She was loved for her wit, readiness to laugh and professionalism. The news of her untimely death has left an emptyness in many of us here at the PCSO. We look forward to celebrating her life with her family as we have many fun times to share. May you find peace during this difficult time.

“ Nancy Long - Sister-in-law posted a condolence Remember "Rainbow Bridge"? I see you, Chris, Rommel, Miles, Clive, Agnes, Jack, Lucille and Barry frolicking in the fields and you laughing while the dogs are licking your face and jumping all over and Chris is there watching and enjoying the utter nonsense. You all will be with us forever in spirit. Love you.

“ Nancy Gentile (Atkinson) - Best friend for 50 Years posted a condolence There are simply no words to describe the the pain of losing someone you have grown up with and shared so many of life's experiences. From the day we met, at age ten, Alice and I were like sisters. We were together throughout our school years, adolescence, marriages, divorces, births, and deaths. When Alice asked me to preform her and Chris' marriage ceromony,- I was thrilled. Alice, my dear friend, was a free spirit, never conventional. Alice, and her crazy, funny family were my second family. The tip jar funded so many downtown lunches at McCrory's for Alice, Berni and me. Slumber parties at Alice's house consisted of waiting until all were asleep and then Alice, Beri and I would sneak out (we called ourselves the Midnight Thrillers) and wander all over Meadowlawn, picking fruit and just being mischievous. Oh my, the laughs we shared when Jeannie made the cake that ended up on the kitchen ceiling, the shaving cream caper when Jeannie was asleep,- Jimmy returning from the navy, the birth of Kelly, Carole's wedding, Bojo and the flying angels... The laughs and tears we shared will remain safely locked within my heart forever. Thank you Alice for always being my friend. I will miss you with all my heart.
