I always considered myself as my sister's protector, but now I know she was the strong one. I will dearly miss her.

Mom told me how you were always there for her as her protector growing up. She loved you dearly as we all do. She was so lucky to have you in her life. The memories we have of her will keep us going.

“ I can still remember Christmas and Thanksgiving dinners! Wow grandma could cook and bake. I can still smell how good the house smelled! Yummy! I always thought she cooked too much but it didn't matter leftovers were just as good and who doesn't love cookies every day :-)

A purple candle for a February Angel. I love you Mom. Although my heart is broken right now, the memories you have left me will help to heal that heart. Maybe not today or tomorrow...but someday.
