“ Alvera was my classmate through all of grade and high school. She was one of the "good ones". While I lost track of her after HS, I fortunately remade contact in the last couple of years. As I expected, she was smart, funny, and worth knowing. just like she was 60 years ago. Some things never change. I shall miss her.

“ Alvera was truly a one of a kind neighbor and friend. She always was ready to lend a hand to help me care for my critters and home, even at the last minute! She would say "No Problem, I got it covered". I will miss seeing her walking her beloved dogs and listening to her share neighborhood news. My heart goes out to her loving daughters and family. Our Indian Hills treasure will be remembered forever!
