Amalia Emma Colls

October 21st 1955-August 27th, 2010

Born in San Juan, Puerto Rico to father Jose Salvador Colls and mother Blanche Palmer. She is survived by her loving family; daughter Emelyn Marie Edwards and her husband Nevado Edwards Jr., son Exor Johnelle Torres; grandchildren Johnathon Augustus, Franchesca Annmarie, and Nathaniel Augustus Edwards.

She loved to travel the world enjoying every bit of nature's beauty. She always strived for personal success in all aspects even during the most hardship moments of life. She taught her children to become strong, independent and successful individuals. Her favorite thing to do was to dance. Dancing was her life! She was a very positive person and it was contagious to those around her.

Mom, we will always remember your smile, your touch, and your kisses. You are and always will be the Queen of Our Hearts. For ever and ever. I love you more...

To My Mother

There's nothing that can steal your face

Or take the warmth of your embrace.

Or steal your special love away.

Forever more, and to a day
These gifts are locked away by me I've always had them from the start.

These are the riches of my heart
Fly away up to a star.

Touch the heavens, oh so far
Shake God's hand, the angels too
The best they'll ever meet is you.

Ave Maria

Dios te salve Maria
Llena eres de gracia
El Senor es contigo
Bendita eres entre todas la mujeres
y bendito es el fruto de tu vientre Jesus.
Santa Maria Madre de Dios ruega por nosotros
los pecadores ahora y en la hora
de nuestra muerte
Amen

You were my strenght when I was weak
You were my voice when I couldn't speak
You were my eyes when I couldn't see
You saw the best there was in me

Lifted me up when I couldn't reach
You gave me faith because you believed I'm everything I am, Because you loved me
In loving memory of Amalia Emma Colls
I love you more...

“ Amalia contacted me sometime around 2009-2010 through Ancestry.com wondering if I was related to Dona Tita Colls (RIP) - which I am, I am her nephew)- expressing interest in researching her genealogical tree. Unfortunatly by the time I noticed her request in Ancestry.com she had passed away.I have, however, traced the genealogical tree of the Colls-Luigi family and if anyone in the Martinez-Colls were to be interested in obtaining more information about it I will be more than glad to share the information with you.

I am Jose Eladio Colls Salcedo. My email address is collsjcolls@earthlink.net

“ Amalia is and always will be family to me. She was there for the birth of two of my four children, and even lived with me during a very stressful time in my life. She always made me feel like things would be ok, She was one of the strongest and most positive people I was ever blessed in knowing. I have way too many memories to put them all down here, but she will truly be missed by my family. I prayed that my Nana would be there to meet her in Heaven and give her the grand tour once she is received by the Lord so I am sure they are having a great time free of all pain and worry. Johnelle, you are like a brother to me. I watched you grow up, learn english, and your family is always welcome in our home. I love you all very much, and I know you mother is in peace now I would say may she rest in peace, but she is not resting as she is probably dancing.###imported-begin###LYNETTE###imported-end##

“ Amalia was a Dear Friend who I knew for many years. It breaks my heart to hear of she passed on. I know she's in a better place. I wish I could have been there to the end but I know it was best for her to be with her loves ones in Florida. She had a heart of gold and cared about everyone she knew. We will truly miss her. Our prayers are with her family.
