“ Grandma, I know you are watching over your family, I know how hard it could be for them. I do ask of you to visit them for Christmas, it won't be the same for them. But I know if you gave them some kind of sign, they will not feel lonely Christmas. You are always be in my heart and I will always remember you. I love you and I miss you. R.I.P. grandmother

“ Grandma, it will be a month now that we haven't seen you.... I miss you tremendously, I messed up once and I am making it up for it. I do miss seeing you smile, laugh, and even the weirdest conversation we had. I am always praying that God watches over your kids, and grandkids. You have such a beautiful family, wish I could hug you or atleast hear you fart. I know I will see you again in heaven, will you do me a favor and ask God to send me a friend here in Florida. I miss you, amd love you. R.I.P

“ The 2 years that I have been a part of your family's life has been very special to me. Ed told me that I made an impact in your life as the "girl with the pretty eyes", This truly made me smile, but not as much as the love you share with your family. Even though there was the language barrier between us, you still impacted my life in a positive way. The love that you shared with your family was very inspiring. You will be truly missed, however we know God has called upon a true angel to join him. Lots of love to you Abuela.

“ To my grandmother, I thank you so much for loving me and accepted me in your family. You have truly blessed me, I hold a special place in my heart for you. You always called me "la nena", I love you grandma. I will always have you in my heart. I will see you again in heaven, and when I do I know I will see you in a white dress to welcome me home.
Love, Cindy Barahone AKA "La nena"
