

Angela Tauriello

November 2, 1950 - March 23, 2017

“For He shall give His angels charge over thee, to keep thee in all thy ways.”
- Psalm 91:11

After a protracted battle with breast cancer, Angela Santina Tauriello was lifted to eternal life, with her family by her side, on March 23, 2017 in Orlando, Florida at the age of 66.

Angela was born in Naples, Italy in 1950 to the late Gaetano Favale and Antonietta (Cataldi) Favale. She was raised in Tuscany until 1963 when she moved with her parents and two siblings to the United States, settling in Brooklyn, New York. Angela attended Lafayette High School and graduated from Adelphi Business School in Brooklyn. She immediately began working in Manhattan as a typist for various organizations, later becoming head bank teller for Canadian Imperial Bank of Commerce where she was employed until 1975.

Angela married the love of her life, Joseph Anthony Tauriello, in July of 1974. This union was blessed with three children. In 1991, the family of five relocated to Orlando, Florida and eventually grew to include two sons-in-law, a daughter-in-law, and seven beautiful grandchildren.

Angela was a devoted wife, mother, and grandmother; her most prized role!

She enjoyed writing poetry, dancing, singing (especially “Happy Birthday” to her grandchildren), laughing, eating great food, and above all, spending time with her family. Those who knew her loved her sense of humor, quick wit, fun-loving personality, and zest for life. She was often referred to as “the coolest grandma, EVER!” While we are heartbroken that she is no longer of this earth, there is comfort in knowing that she is free of pain and at peace with our Lord and Savior.

Angela is survived by her husband, Joseph, three children (Toni Ann, Joseph, III, and Danielle), and their families: Matthew, Toni Ann, Anthony, Andrew, and Aidan Meyer of Orlando, FL; Joseph, Amy, and Kaylin Tauriello of Winter Park, FL; and Ben, Danielle, Bryanna, Natalia, and Weston Chapman of Oviedo, FL. She is also survived by her sister, Rose DeVito, brother-in-law, Victor DeVito, and numerous nieces, nephews, and cousins. She is preceded in death by her parents and her brother, Frank Favale.

At Angela’s request, she has been cremated and there will not be a service. A private gathering will be held for immediate family to celebrate her life. Her ashes will be interred at Glen Haven Memorial Park at a later date.

Weep not for me though I am gone into that gentle night.

Grieve if you will, but not for long upon my soul's sweet flight.

I am at peace; my soul's at rest, there is no need for tears.

For with your love I was so blessed for all those many years.

There is no pain; I suffer not, the fear now all is gone.

Put now these things out of your thoughts, in your memory I live on.

Remember not my fight for breath, remember not the strife.

Please do not dwell upon my death, but...

CELEBRATE MY LIFE!

Cemetery Details

Glen Haven Memorial Park

2300 Temple drive
Winter Park, FL 32789

Tribute Wall

NC

“ Fly hig grandma we are all misses you right now and we will always miss you. But I hope you know that I will always have you in my heart because in there you live on. I MISS YOU GRANDMA AND YOUR MY ANGEL. I LOVE YOU TO THE MOON AND BACK 10000 TIMES

Natalia Crowley - March 25, 2019 at 06:11 PM

MS

“ Angela was The Best Friend Ever, she was Extremely Caring for others even through her most difficult times. I will miss her everyday.

Maria Sordi

Maria SORDI - April 20, 2017 at 04:11 PM

AS

“ Dear Cuz, I'm so very sorry for the loss of your beautiful and loving wife Angela. To you, your children, grand children and Angela's family we extend our heartfelt sympathies. My heart is breaking as I write this.

May beautiful Angela rest in peace. Fly with the angels dear Angela.

You will be forever in our hearts.

Love Cousins Angela and Ron

Angela Sansone - March 25, 2017 at 09:23 AM