With deep sorrow and loving remembrance, we announce the passing of Angela Violante, who departed this earthly life on March 14, 2026, in Longwood, Florida, at the age of 76.

Angela was born on June 10, 1949, in Utica, New York, to her parents, Salvatore Alberico and Marie DeSimone. She was raised with a strong sense of family togetherness and a deep faith, carrying the spirit of her East Utica Italian roots throughout her life. She fell in love with Anthony Violante III, son of Anthony (Todd) Violante II and Marie Manfredo, in Utica, and they were married in 1970.

Together, they shared 57 wonderful years of marriage, creating a lifetime of cherished memories.

In 1988, Angela and her husband made their home in Longwood, Florida, where she built meaningful connections and lasting friendships. Her genuine character and caring nature touched all who knew her. Angela loved traveling and had a passion for cruising. During her years in Florida, she was blessed to take 27 cruises throughout the Caribbean and Mexico with her beloved husband.

A woman of deep faith, Angela was a devoted Catholic whose life reflected kindness, humility, compassion, and a strong belief in God. She will be remembered for her warm and welcoming personality, her willingness to help others, and the strength she demonstrated through life's challenges. Angela had a special way of bringing comfort, encouragement, and treasured family traditions to those around her. Her presence will be deeply missed by all who knew and loved her.

She leaves behind to cherish her memory, her beloved husband, Anthony Violante III; her devoted daughter, Dawn Marie Violante; her loving son, Anthony Violante IV; her siblings: Joseph and wife Deborah Alberico of Mohawk, Kathleen Alberico of New Hartford, Dr. Frances and husband Martin Carns, of Rochester, Nancy and husband Moses Salcido of FL., Lisa and husband Donald Hughes of Oneida, Maria C. and husband Louis T. Brindisi, Esq. of Utica, and Caprice Daniels and Bradford Hellinger of Utica; She is also survived by her extended family: Dennis and wife Laureen Violante; Darleen Violante-Riggles; the late Ronald Violante; as well as her aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, and cousins.

Angela will also be fondly remembered by her friends, neighbors in Sweetwater Oaks, coworkers, and all who had the privilege of knowing her. The lives she touched will forever carry her memory forward.

“ To my dear friend, Angela Violante, God has chosen you to be one of His most special angels. May your light continue to shine as brightly in heaven as it always did here on earth. You will forever be in my heart, and your kindness, laughter, and love will never be forgotten.

“ Al and I have not seen your family in years. You were in Florida and we are in California. However thanks to social media, I did know when you had company and I did know when Angela was getting her meals prepared for the holidays. She always posted her prepared meals and I always admired her organization. She would have the lasagna put together while I was still deciding what my menu would be.

I came across these photos from the winter of 1987 and from the summer of 1987 when I was visiting Utica.

Al and I send our condolences to you and your family. May your beautiful memories give you comfort.

“ My wife Angela was loved by so many both as a child and a married woman. We shared 57 years together and created so many tremendous memories together. Much of our life we even worked together in our businesses and some employers. She was one of 8 children in her family and acted as a second Mom to them all. She had many cousins who she grew with and throughout her life remained close to them all. She believed in the Italian tradition of families should unite together on Sundays and holidays. I will truly miss my beautiful wife and will never stop loving her.

Tony,
I am beyond saddened and shocked and share in this time of your grief. Hold to the wonderful memories, as I will. Angela was a wonderful and gracious person all the years we knew her. When we shopped in your store with my young daughters, she was always so charming and loving to them. So many great memories. Our love goes out to you and your family in this difficult time. I cannot imagine the loss, even though you know I came close more than once. Angela will always be remembered fondly and loved for the wonderful person she was on earth, and now is in the Gracious arms of the Lord Jesus Christ. I know you to be a strong man, but if you need a neighbor, a friend, call me. I'm here for you! We all grieve. With deepest condolences.....
