Angela Fulciniti Wilson, of Orlando, FL age 88, passed away peacefully at home on Thursday, October 17, 2019. She was born July 7th 1931 to Parents Anthony and Rose Fulciniti in Buffalo, New York.

She was a mother to four girls, Debbie, Jamie, Toni, and Lana. Angela, aka "Nan/Nanny" devoted her life to her daughters and grandchildren. Angela was a labtech, a waitress, caretaker and continued to provide for her family into her late 70's. She was also an outstanding cook. When you parked outside of her house the aromas of an Italian restaurant would hit your nose. Her family shared multiple recipes but, Angela's specialty was her homemade marinara with meatballs. She perfected this dish and dedicated hours doing so.

“ I will always remember the special times we had together. Family love and laughter. Spring Breaks and so many special memories. Even though we didn't see each other she will always be in our heart. Hard to believe all the Fulci's are together again! You always had a special bond with your Mom, and that was wonderful. Be strong and know she is watching over you, as I know my Mom and Aunt Lana are watching over me. And Grandpa Tony and Grandma Rose is watching over all of us to live the Godly Life they instilled in us!!!! To God Be The Glory!!! Diane, Victor and Andrew Kares
