“ Miss Angie was director of RCIA when all three of my now adult kids made their sacraments. She was instrumental in getting me back into preparing students for initiation into the church. I am honored and blessed that we eventually became personal friends. Miss Angie was an angel on earth. God bless. RIP.

“ I knew Ms. Pachecho as a young student of hers back in the early 70's. She was the only teacher who ever took such an interest in me to make a home visit. That touched me and my family and for years after that she was always a welcome friend to the Andrade family. She would come over for dinner or go out to dinner with us and Msgr. Vincent Howard, father Vince or Father Howard to us. We have reunions with Msgr. Howard every year and we usually called Angie to say hello. I will miss her beautiful spirit and warm and welcoming conversation. She will certainly make her mark in the heavenly cosmos. Her old old student....William Andrade.

“ My sincere condolences to the family of Angie. Her life was dedicated to works of our Savior. I truly admired her heavenly personality when she directed the R.C.I.A at St. Andrew Catholic Church. She will be truly missed.

“ My sincerest condolences for your loss of Angie. We met when I was one of her students along with my brothers and sisters back in Detroit at St Catherines / St Edwards School. I shall always remember Angie(Miss Pacheco) as a great role model and Art teacher. She had this incredible positive influence on all who knew her.

Angie held beauty not only on the outer surface but within as well. She was always volunteering her time to help the students and our church as well as the community.

We are all blessed she was in our lives. "Angie was an inspiration to me and many others."

Please know that our thoughts and prayers are with you.
