

Angelo Cane

May 8, 1944 - April 23, 2023

Angelo Cane of Altamonte Springs, FL is now with his Heavenly Father as of April 23, 2023.

Angelo was born to parents, Della and Angelo Cane Sr. on May 8, 1944 and raised in Buffalo, NY where he met the love of his life, Carol Mancuso Cane, and raised their two sons, Joseph and Angelo Jr., initially in Buffalo, and then largely in Tonawanda, NY.

Angelo worked at Quebecor for many years until he retired. He loved to bowl, golf, play in the Gus Macker basketball tournaments, go to shows at Shea's Buffalo, spend time with family and friends, and enjoyed a good Ted's hotdog and Anderson's frozen custard whenever possible.

Angelo and Carol moved to Altamonte Springs, FL in 2002, where Carol eventually retired and both continued working as volunteers at the local hospital and pain center. Angelo loved going to the golf range and golfing with his son, Angelo Jr. and friends as much as possible. Forever a Bills fan, he caught every game on TV and never gave up on his beloved team. Angelo loved to bake and was known among family and friends and even paying customers, for his delicious treats. He loved listening to Motown music while baking, and when relaxing, loved the sounds of Barbra Streisand and Celine Dion. Angelo enjoyed his personal connections with people, took many road trips with Carol to visit their grandsons, and loved meeting family and friends for coffee, talking about the Bills, participating in the transplant games, and enjoying life to its fullest.

Despite countless health issues over the years, Angelo was known among family and friends as the “real life energizer bunny,” as he just kept on going. While forever here in spirit, Angelo physically leaves behind his wife, Carol Mancuso Cane of Altamonte Springs, FL, his son Joseph of Cumming, GA, his son Angelo Jr. (Ann) of Orlando, FL, his three grandsons, Landon, Garrett and Colin of Cumming, GA, his brother Dan Cane (Shirley) of Depew, NY, his sister Shirley Vizzi (the late Sam Vizzi) of Tonawanda, NY and many other beloved family members and friends in Western New York and Florida. Angelo is predeceased by his parents Angelo and Della Cane as well as his brother Sonny and many of his favorite people who have crossed over before him, and no doubt were there to greet him when it was his time to do the same.

A Mass will be held on May 5, at 10:00 a.m. at Annunciation Catholic Church, 1020 Montgomery Road, Altamonte Springs, Florida 32714 and in the near future, date to be determined, a celebration of life in Buffalo, NY.

Funeral service will be live-streamed.

In lieu of flowers, donations can be made to Hospice or Our Legacy c/o Public Relations, 601 S. Lake Destiny Rd, Suite 400 Maitland, FL 32751, designating the donation to the Susan Perkins Fund (Angelo’s kidney donor).

Previous Events

Memorial Mass

MAY 5. 10:00 AM (ET)

Annunciation Catholic Church Life Center
1020 Montgomery Rd.
Altamonte Springs, FL 32714

Tribute Wall

AS

“ We are so sad to hear of Babe's passing. Carol and he were so warm and welcoming to me. I was a new family member and we visited them in Tonawanda NY. That was 37 years ago and I still remember today how lovely they were together, baking. Nick has many wonderful memories of him. Spending the days at each other homes. Going to the rail road tracks. Spending many summrrs together Our most heat felt love to Carol and all of their family. Afton & Nick Stincelli

Afton & Nick Stincelli - May 24, 2023 at 08:25 PM

JM

“ Through the Transplant meetings, John and I became friends with Angelo and Carol. We shared many happy times, including dinners, coffees, transplant games, and beach trips. They will be forever cherished. I am sure John will be showing Angelo around in heaven and laughing all the time. Much love Carol to you and your family. Judith Moore

Judith Moore - May 02, 2023 at 08:35 PM

JG

“ Through my wife's Bishop McMahon High School girls club, we have remained friends and shared many happy occasions together. My favorite memory of Anglo, however, is from when he was in 7th grade at Buffalo's PS 76. We used to play a lunch hour game on the cinder stone playground called Relievio, or Ringolevio. Angelo and his brother Dan were among the fastest in the school and they were also into tumbling. Just when you thought you had caught him, Ang would do a forward tumble or flip and slip away. Ang remained an athlete and a fighter all his life. RIP Angelo "Babe" Cane.

JOSEPH GRIFFO - April 28, 2023 at 10:31 AM

AC

“ Pops was the perfect father-in-law. Having lost my dad when I was eight years old, I missed that kind of influence in my life, but Pops seemed to sense that, picked up the pieces where my own dad left off, and always treated me right from the start as his very own daughter. He was such a kind, genuine, caring person who preferred to fly under the radar and never make a big deal about any special things he did for others. He is the most resilient person I have ever met in my life, hands down. I know for sure my husband is a product of the kind of man Pops modeled for him. Pops was consistently dependable, gracious, had tremendous respect for women, was very grateful, lived life to the fullest, and always kept an eye up above, as his faith was at the center of who he was, while he never judged nor thought less of anyone who thought differently. I will miss him terribly, but have no doubt he remains with us in spirit, and something tells me he and my dad have already been introduced, are fast friends, and my dad thanked him for being the very best father in law I could have ever wished for. I love you Pops! Heaven just got an upgrade.

Ann Cane - April 27, 2023 at 03:59 PM

MM

“ Angelo did not have an easy path in life, but never let it get in the way of a good time. So many memories, with our children and then as adults. So very sorry for your loss. I remember lying on a dock of a quiet lake in N.H. waiting for shooting stars and laughing. Angelo was always a shooting star, he will always have a place in our hearts. Ron and Marie

Marie Mancuso - April 27, 2023 at 01:20 PM

JS

“ Sadly missed, a long time great friend, "Babe". My sympathy to the family.

Joe Sparacio - April 27, 2023 at 10:21 AM

JG

“ Through my wife’s Bishop McMahon High School girls club, we have remained friends and shared many happy occasions together. My favorite memory of Angelo, however, is from when he was in 7th grade at Buffalo’s PS 76. We used to play a lunch hour game on the cinder stone playground called Relievio, or Ringolevio. Angelo and his brother Dan were among the fastest in the school and they were also into tumbling. Just when you thought you had caught him, Ang would do a forward tumble or flip and slip away. Ang remained an athlete and a fighter all his life.
RIP Angelo “Babe” Cane

JOSEPH J GRIFFO - April 27, 2023 at 09:46 AM

DM

“ Dave Mingle purchased the Divine Peace Bouquet for the family of Angelo Cane.

Dave Mingle - April 27, 2023 at 08:17 AM