

Anh Quoc Tran Nguyen

May 11, 1980 - August 15, 2021

Anhquoc “Joe” Nguyen, 41, passed away on August 15, 2021, due to complications resulting from a month-long battle with COVID-19. The disease took him too soon from this world, but his spirit will live on forever.

Joe is survived by his beautiful wife Casey, and 3 beautiful kids; his daughter Hien, and two sons; Huy and Hieu. He was a proud husband and father and loved his family unconditionally. He is a son to his mother Lan. Joe is a brother to Peter, John, Thomas, Nam, and Vu; and an uncle to Tai, Isabella, Mai, Minh Anh, and Mai Anh. His unique sense of humor will live on through his surviving family and friends.

Joe’s dad Tuyen (who is deceased) instilled the value of family in him at a very young age. According to Joe, “My family is God's biggest and best blessing to me.” If you have ever seen Joe in his favorite outfit; basketball shorts, a white tank top, and some flip flops; sat at a poker table with him; or even played fantasy football with him-you were considered family. Joe loved having gatherings and seeing all his family and friends enjoying each other’s company.

Joe was a bridge; he bridged many people from different walks of life together. He will be remembered forever. He will live on through happy memories from all his family and friends. Joe and Casey built a family full of love and happiness. Joe was a beacon of light for his family, his love for his children was tremendous; he was always proud to speak about how they were growing into such great kids. Casey, Hien, Huy, and Hieu will exude Joe's love and spirit forever.

If you feel the compassion to donate to Joe's family; no amount can replace Joe, and no amount is too small. Anything will help his family through this tragedy and is much appreciated. Please click the link and donate: <https://gofundme.com/c790e321>

“ I still remember when we were kids and we would play at your grandpa's treehouse with your brothers. The memories of us being kids and seeing who can catch the most lizards between Sunday school and church. I think I always lost.

I still remember in our early twenties going to parties in Gainesville and Orlando. My last memory was our kids hanging out together in May which was suppose to be an hr meetup that turned into a whole day event. It made me smile seeing Huy teach my daughter how to catch lizards. Life comes full circle. I am truly sad you are gone and I still cannot believe it. You were one of my best friends. I pray you to rest in peace and prayers to your family.

“ We’ve been friend since 1996 or so thanks to Asianavenue. I can’t remember all the details but you’ve been a brother of me since. We know so much about one another. Thanks for always been so kind, thoughtful, and generous. You’re definitely a friend I do not want to be without. You will always hold a dear place on my heart. Love u Joe !

“ I wasn't given a brother by blood but God knew what he was doing when he gave me you! I love you more than words can truly express. You have been there for me through so many ups and downs and you never judged me. You loved and respected me for who I was. You were always there when I needed you. You never let me down. You never let anything get in the way of our relationship! I am eternally grateful for the gift of you!
