

Ann Taylor Ellis

August 25, 1945 - March 4, 2010

Ann Clymer Taylor Ellis of Lake Mary, Florida returned to our Father in Heaven on March 4th, 2010. She was born to John and Alice Clymer on August 25th, 1945 in Cleveland, Ohio. She was a teacher at a Daycare/Learning Center and took joy in watching over the little ones she loved as her own. She was the loving mother of Clark Taylor of Atlanta, GA and Katy Taylor Mattson of Crested Butte, CO. She was married to Bob Ellis. She is survived by her sister, Linda Clymer Ellis and Brother-In-Law, Gary Ellis. Also survived by her nieces and nephews, Patti Ellis-Roberts, John Ellis, Missie Ellis, and Brent Ellis. She is also survived by her Son-In-Laws, Jim DeAntonio, Matt Mattson, and Todd Roberts, and her Daughter-In-Law Tania Ellis. She was the loving Great Aunt of Trent Roberts, Payton Roberts, Avery Ellis, and Addison Ellis. She had an infectious joy for life and she never lost her sense of wonder. Her childlike innocence was endearing. She will be missed terribly, but we all take comfort knowing that she is now watching over us as our Angel in Heaven.

The family is asking that any donations be made in her name to:

“ Hey Mom!

Loved my dream last night....thanks. I hate NOT talking to you. I miss you so much in my heart. Can you visit me every night in my dreams?? If not...every other night would be fine.....

My friends talk about you all the time.....they miss you too! You were always the most popular mom!!!!

It is hard down here without you....very hard.....

*Love you,

“ Our heart felt sympathy to Katie and Clark for the loss of an exceptional Mom. We knew her through YOUR character, love and concern for others. Know that Mom is with you always and will be at His throw pleading for you. It's called the communion of Saint's. It is real because God is true to His word. Clark, I'm always here for you. “ My Dearest Aunt Ann,

I am soory it has taken me awhile to get to this webpage. Maybe because it makes it so final or maybe I can't stop crying, but I now know and believe that you are in the most beautiful place with our Savior and your parents (our Grandma and Grandpa). We all have an extra angel now.

I am grateful and blessed to have been with you the past 60 days. Yes, there were some hard times and many tears, but we had some laughs too. I have to say that room 815 was a good one..... watching the man climb down off the crane, progress on Dr. G's building, the beautiful swans in the lake, the view of downtown, talks with Clark and Katy, movies with Brent, sunflower cake with Missie and Rick, sleepovers with Clark, and lets not forget about the countless ice cream. Those are just a few, but we both remember everything else.

Thank you for being an amazing aunt. You were always there for me in good times and bad and thanks for letting me call you any time of the day too. You always had something wonderful to say to make me feel better. You rubbed my hair when Trent was being born and you even ironed his bedskirt. That was a picture moment by the way! Our little adventruess in my green beetle, I told you the carseat and stoller wouldn't fit but at least you tried. LOL. Our movie list and Trent's first movie at 9 months. But also our childhood memories were great too. What about Bay Days, those natural peaunt butter sandwiches, Christmas time and can't forget those cherry dipped cones!!!

You weren't only a wonderful aunt, but you were a fantastic mom, sister and friend. I know that you are looking down on Clark and Katy and are so proud of them. We will keep your promise and will take care of them and be there for them. Don't forget to keeping looking down on all of us, we still need you!

The world is a better place because of you and we all thank you for that!

I just know that you are skipping down those streets of gold and dancing with Jesus. Our Lord has plans for you Aunt Ann, but we will be together again soon in Heaven!

We miss you and love you!

“ Clark & Katy,

We are deeply sorry for your loss. Your Mother will certainly live on within all of us. She had this larger than life personality, always full of laughter and love. She touched everyone she knew with her smile and charm. I will never forget meeting your Mother for the first time, one of the many memories of her that still makes me laugh today. She was one of the rare few that you meet and instantly feel a connection, like you've known her forever. We quickly became a part of her family and she became ours. We will keep her alive in our hearts, sharing the many memories we have of her with each other. I am sorry that we cannot be there with you tomorrow but know that we will be thinking of you and here everyday to follow. We are sending prayers for strength & peace tomorrow and everyday to follow. We love you!

Ms. Ann- Thank you for the best gift ever... raising such an amazing man, my BESTIE Clark and Guncle Clark to our girls. Like you, he has touched the life of many, especially my family. Know that we will always embrace him and Jim, whom we deeply love. We'll see you on the other side! Love, Heidi, Chris & the Girls!###imported-begin##Chris###imported-end##

“ Aunt Ann~

Thank you for being such a loving, supportive, and FUN aunt! I am going to miss you SO much! But I know you are in heaven with your mom and dad, the Good Lord, and friends. Give Carol a big hug for me. Now you can eat as much cake and peanut butter and butter sandwiches as you wish. One day I will see you again and enjoy those sandwiches with you! Oh and don't forget Cherry Dipped Cones!!!! Everytime I eat one I will raise my cone up to you! :)

Thank you for showing me how to be a fantastic aunt. Everything I do for my niece and nephew is because I've learned it from you. I can't wait for them to get older so I can meet them at the movies after work and see a flick! I love them just like you loved me. And I know you will look over me and guide me to be there for them when they need me most. Just as you did for me.

I love you so much and even though you aren't a phone call away I know all I have to do is look up and you are there! :)

Thank you for all the great memories we've shared over the years and I am so thankful you were a part of my life! I just hope to be half the person you are!

“ Clark, Katie, and sister Linda:

Your Mom /sister's passing is a tragic loss to all who knew and loved Ann. I count myself fortunate to have been one of her many friends. I went all through 12 years of school with Ann back in Bay Village and graduated with her in 1963. While I moved away from Bay in 1967, whenever I would come back to visit I would always try to look up Ann. She was a great friend and was always up to date on the latest news about our classmates. In the late 1990's when my Mother, who still lived in Bay, was ill, Ann would always go out of her way to help Mother and she was a great comfort and friend to her.

Your Mom was so very proud of you Clark and Katie, your names came up in every conversation. You were surely the light of her life. Ann was loyal to her friends and a wonderful, fun person to be with....she was loved by all. As word of Ann's death slowly makes its way to various classmates around the country, the reaction is the same - utter disbelief that she is gone.

My deepest sympathies to all of Ann's family.##imported-begin##John Chamberlain##imported-end##

I am sorry for not writing this condolence sooner, but it has taken me some time to begin to get over the shock of your Mom's passing.

She was truly a wonderful Mom.

Whenever we talked, our conversations revolved around the both of you. I could almost see her "light up" when talkin about your accomplishments. Your Mom was so very proud of where yoy are in your lives. She basked in your independence and your resolve along with your kindness, thoughtfulness and generosity. Your Mother love you both so very deeply that words cannot express I have no doubt, what so ever, that she is still watching over you and smiling.

While your Mother is gone, she will never be forgotten.

I have only just learned of Ann's death through the newsletter from Bay High. Your mother/sister lived just a few doors away from me in high school - we graduated together. Although I have not met Clark and Katy, the wonderful words from friends and family just remind me of Ann and her personality. She was forever the happy, enthusiastic and fun person to be around....always positive. Even though we have not kept in touch since high school after I moved away, the mention of her name brings back all the vivid memories of those years so long ago. I can't believe it has been a year. Boy has it been a tough year without you but I know you are where you should be, with the Good Lord.

The other night I was thinking about the times when we met up at the movie theatre after school on Wednesdays. I was so blessed to have you as my aunt. I learned so much from you. I can't wait to share all of our memories you and I had with Trent and Payton when they get older. :)

I miss you so much! Tomorrow at 7:40pm we will be sending off yellow balloons to you! Hope you catch them!

Love you so much!

“ Hi My Beautiful Sweet Annie...It's been one year since you "got your wings". Each and everytime I think of you, I get the biggest smile in my heart. Our friendship that is one in a million...I treasure our memories, and your friendship. Thanks for watchiing over all of us...I LOVE YOU, Annie....each time I see a coin on the ground, I know it's YOU saying HI to me...I make a wish, and send a smile your way. Big Angel hugs, Lynnii##imported-begin##Lynnii##imported-end##

“ Hi Ann, I miss my sister so very much. This year has been really rough. I think of you and talk to you every day. I wish I could give you a big hug and kiss. I know you are having fun with Mom and Dad, give them big hugs and kisses for me. Katy and Clark are doing fine-missing you so much. We'll be having a white cake with white icing tonight in your memory. I'm so thankful we had all those years together as sisters. I love you and miss you soooooooooooooooooo much. “ Hi Mom.....

I did not leave a message on your "Anniversary:.....hope you know why!!! I fall asleep every night praying God will let me visit with you. Some nights....I have been blessed to have that wish granted! Most nights, I don't.

I will never know why were separated in such a surprising way...but I hope that someday you can tell me. I am doing really good down here, but I would trade it for a cardboard box on the sidewalk just to feel you again...to hear you again....to see you again.

I love you, and can't wait until I can do all three!!!!!!!!!!!!

I LOVE YOU MAMA!!!!!! I know you are giving me "spiders" in heaven every night! HA HA! You and me against the worlkd..... Your son, Clark

Please visit in my sleep as much as you can.##imported-begin##Clark##imported-end##

“ I miss you Mom!! There isn't a day that goes by that I don't think of you. I have finally been able to dream about you a few times and I love those dreams!! I remember how happy you were when you dreamt about Grandma and Grandpa and it makes me happy to dream about you.

Have been seeing a couple lady bugs at the golf course and always think they are you. I know you are everywhere with me!

Say hi to Wyle for us!

Love and Miss you always!!##imported-begin##Katy##imported-end##
