“ I met Mrs. hedrick June 2014 and was inspired by her cheerful disposition, empathy for stray animals/cats and joyful appreciation of her family. Over the years and through several life changing events including the loss of her husband and of recent years her granddaughter; I noticed she had resilience while suffering deep and tough losses but always had something positive to say. We will miss you and have always stood with you in making the best choices in your medical skin care.

Love,
