

Anselmito T. Nadres

August 13, 2009

NADRES, JR., ANSELMITO T., 78, of Pinellas Park, died Thursday, August 13, 2009, at Northside Hospital in St. Petersburg. Selmi was born on July 18, 1931 in Lucena City, Philippines, the second of six children. He and his wife Reginita arrived in Washington, D.C. on July 4, 1970 and lived in Maryland for 30 years. Selmi worked for 25 years as a data operator for Regis National Bank, before retiring and moving with Regi to Pinellas Park in 2000. A fashionable dresser, Selmi was a very good dancer and was always the life of the party. He enjoyed watching television and his birds, as well as listening to music. He also loved dogs. He will be missed very much by many people, especially his wife and daughter. He was predeceased by his father, Anselmito Nadres, Sr., and mother, Lolita Nadres. He is survived by his wife of 40 years, Regi, and his daughter, Moira. A memorial mass will be held at Sacred Heart Catholic Church, Pinellas Park, on Wednesday, August 19, at 2:00pm.

Tribute Wall

“ The family of Anselmito T. Nadres uploaded a photo

August 19, 2019 at 12:00 AM