ANTHONY ALFANO

Born - July 17, 1917

Died - May 8, 2011

Anthony Alfano, the oldest of seven, was born in New York City on July 17th, 1917 to Giovanna Maltese Alfano and Giovanni Alfano.

He was a butcher by trade, trained by his father by the age of 14. He applied this knowledge throughout his life holding the position of District Manager/Meat Specialist with Grand Union Supermarket for more than 30 years.

After retirement, Anthony established and maintained a club for recovering alcoholics for more than 10 years in Parlin, New Jersey, providing support to many. Of all his accomplishments, this was one of which he was most proud. The fact that many of the people he mentored continue to keep in contact with him, is a measure of his success.

In 2007 Anthony moved to Orlando, Florida to be close to family and enjoy the warm weather and sunshine, which he loved.

Three sons and two daughters, John, Anthony Jr., Craig, Mona Lisa and Adola, along with their spouses that he loved as his own, survive Anthony Alfano. In addition, seven grandchildren, fifteen great grandchildren and many nieces and nephews also survive him.

Anthony loved his music, both singing and dancing and took pleasure in playing practical jokes. He brought much pleasure to everyone who knew him, always offering his assistance wherever needed.

Anthony shared the following with many:

DRIVE SLOW, STAY ON THE RIGHT-HAND SIDE OF THE ROAD AND LET HIM PASS YOU BY
and
NEVER GIVE UP !!!

He will be missed.

“ This man saved my life! He was my sponsor and a GREAT friend. I think of Tony and the One Step Beyond Club every day. I've fallen off the wagon a few times but thanks to the love and caring Tony showed to all of us I put all of that behind me. Tony, I'm proud to say I am clean and sober 23 years. My love for you will never end. Rest in peace my GREAT friend,
