“ As a kid, I remember Aunt Toni being very kind and making sure my visits to Florida were fun and filled with great memories. 25 years ago, Toni came all the way to California for my wedding. My wife Thuy, remembers how Toni made everyone feel special, especially with her compliments of the flower arrangements made by her family. As a memorial to Toni, we are planting a fruit tree and some flowers on our property in Englewood, FL.

“ When Toni and my brother Larry were engaged, Toni arranged for me to learn to sew at her home. Her mother. Mrs. Siclari, made most of the wedding gowns in Olean, NY and I was thrilled. Many years later Larry & Toni entertained my family many times in Florida. She and Larry are now together. May they rest in peace.

“ Although we did not know Toni personally that well we knew her through her son Larry and family. Many holidays and football games were spent together. She was a real Florida Gators fan. Our thoughts and prayers go out to Larry and his family.
