“ I will always remember Kato as we come up on his first year anniversary. Still can't believe he is not among us any more. As the husband of my best friend, he had some pretty high standards to climb but he met them and more with no problem. He was more than a friend, he was a personal friend of my family. I will never forget him. He was a gentle kind soul and put always put his family first. May God bless his soul.
