“ Our deepest condolences and prayers go out to the family. We were fellow parishioners with Dan and Arlene at Sts Peter and Paul church for many years starting in the little round church. May comfort be found knowing that Dan and Arlene are together in heaven with GOD and watching over their loved ones.

“ I had the pleasure to meet Arlene just over 19yrs ago through working with her at Catholic Charities. Our friendship grew beyond our job. I am so thankful for the love and care towards me, my girls and my mom. Arlene is a pure example of wife, mother, beebee. Her family was always part of our talks. I am so sad she has left us but I know she and Danny are together again. RIP my friend. Love you and miss you. Sandy

“ I have known Arlene a long time ago. She was a Unique Lady adorned with all the excellent qualities a wife and a mother can achieve in life. She was truly a Treasure to her beautiful Family. My deepest and heartfelt condolences from Malta to her daughter Jeanne Jake and her beloved grandchildren John and Alexis which she loved all beyond control. But I am positive she is with her Dan and both looking down on you and give you a lot of peace. Wish I could be with you at this sad hour but surely God will help you and bless you.
