“ I know his Bocci Ball game was superior to his golf game, and much calmer. 🙄

Thanks for the entertainment on both fronts, Art.

“ I remember how Mr. Art would have the whole congregation hold hands while he led us in the Lord's prayer. I loved that. Somehow it made the Lord's prayer even more special. I will miss Mr. Art's smile.

“ Art was one of the first men to make me feel welcome at LifePoint's weekly men's group. He had a great sense of humor and always had a smile and a hug for me. Although our backgrounds were very different I truly felt that we were brothers in Christ. I will miss you brother but I will see you again.

“ He was a very nice gentleman. When I was studying in diakonia, then later became a Deacon, I would see him at the retreats. He seemed like he enjoyed working in God's surroundings.

“ I will never forget Art’s sense of humor and his jokes. Our last cruise will always be in my memories. As we went to take the group picture and joking about how we should stand on the steps. Also our trip to Park 150 for dinner and the fun we had with the waiter at the table when he was fixing our food. We had so many great memories together, both on and off the ships. Cruise on Art. We will always remember you.
