

Ashley Farhan Zarou

July 7, 1978 - August 29, 2009

Ashley Zarou passed away suddenly on August 29, 2009. Beloved son of Basim and Soraya, brother to his sister Felicia Flading, brother-in-law to Jason Flading, his dear dear niece and god daughter Soraya Sue and grandmother. He is also survived by many aunts, uncles, countless cousins and friends.

Ashley was born in Livonia, Michigan on July 7, 1978. He attended Lake Mary High School and graduated from U.C.F. He helped run the business with his parents Sam and Soraya and became very knowledgeable in the watch and jewelry sales and service business which he helped expand to 4 locations always planning and thinking to maintain a good business and still keeping the customers always number 1. He was well liked and appreciated by his customers and was well known in all 4 locations because he worked and managed all of them at one time or another. He will be missed by all who crossed his path. He will always live in our hearts, until the time we are together again. We know God has called him to his side but we still have his spirit to always be our guide.

Viewing will be on Thursday, September 3, 2009 from 6 to 8 pm @ DeGusipe Funeral Home, 9001 N. Orlando Avenue (17-92), Maitland, Florida 32751, 407-695-2273
