“Augustine or "Gus" was a very dear friend. He loved life and fought to the very end to live. He was someone who wanted to be around people and to have a good time. He had a good singing voice and was always doing karaoke at a local bar. The love of his life was Bobby. He took good care of him and they had a great life together. In my heart I will always remember his smile, his laugh, his intelligence, his love to dance and his love for others. I always told Gus that I was planning his 100th birthday party. So maybe some day in heaven I can still do that big party for him.....God blessed me to have Gus as a special friend.
