“ *Barbara is à double first cousin. When we lived together at the University of Arkansas
She asked me to trim her hair. I had never tried hair before. Her hair was real curly.
Her response to me, when I protested was, oh you can do anything you set your mind to. So I picked up the shears and started cutting. All of a sudden I shaved her head. There was a pretty large bald spot.
I just gasped but Barbara just said, it'll grow back. Every time I saw that bald spot, I really felt badly, she would just smile.*
