“ Basil and I met at Magnolia Towers we both lived. We moved in pretty much the same time and enjoyed the same menthol cigarettes. No matter what I wanted to do for the day or where I wanted to go Basil would always these go with me he was a very good friend here at the apartment and I was sorry when he moved away and I'm even more sorry to have lost a forever friend. I know he's watching over his daughter his family and his friends I will always love you in my heart Basil peace be with you.
