

Bellmarie Munoz

November 9, 1980 - February 3, 2022

Bellmarie Munoz, of Orlando, Florida, passed away on February 3, 2022, at the age of 41. Bellmarie was born on November 9, 1980 in Brooklyn, New York, the daughter of Julian Munoz and the late Mildred Guerrero.

She is survived by her loving son, Jonah Alexander Munoz and many dear relatives and friends.

Some might say she was spicy while others may call her funny. She can be described as a loving force of positivity. No matter how we remember her we can all agree that she was loved and will forever be missed. She taught many and inspired others, through her love of books, the arts, culture, traveling and food; she has touched many lives. These were not only passions for her but a way of life.

Please join us in a celebration to say goodbye to our dear and loving Bellmarie. She would have wanted us to laugh and rejoice in happy thoughts, her wishes were no sobbing, no tears just laughter and cheer. We will be respecting her wishes.

“Rest in peace Ms. Munoz. You have no idea how much you've impacted my life ever since I stepped into your classroom. I loved how you made our classroom feel like a family, even though we only saw each-other for a short period of time everyday. I will forever cherish the memories we've made together making jokes, eating snacks in class and dancing to Shakira. Thank you for always standing up for me and making me believe in myself and my potential. You will forever be in my heart as the best teacher in the world!

“ When we were little girls we were called the twins. That was the first thing I said. I can't believe my twin is gone. We would play Barbies for hours. I hated when you had to go. I missed you so much when you move to Staten Island and just kept on moving. I was sure now that I moved out here that we would be able to see more of each other. Some much time has been taken from us. I can't understand why this is has happened but I know you are in peaces. I love you so my dear cousin. I will miss you but know you are safe with your mom. Always in my heart ❤️👧👧

“ Belle your time on this earth was way to short! what I'm fighting with is having to believe that there is a plan as to why God called you home. I'm sure you're resting in peace, yet the people still here are the ones in pain as you are missed! I pray that when it's my time I get to see you again. Your passing has really opened my eyes to how important friendship and family really are and to let small things lay by the wayside. To Jonah I can't comprehend how your feeling yet you do have family and friends(Family) of Belle that are here for you. My condolences to the family and those that were closest to BELLE,

Lloyd
