“ I met Bernie in the 1980's when his family had insurance where I worked for Naomi Burd. He always came to the office with a smile. I stopped at their store a few times that is near Carmichaels & there he was with that smile. I went to St Mary's school and also knew his sister which is not mentioned as a survivor, so I'm assuming she passed away too which I'm sad to hear because she was my age. RIP Bernie and my condolences to those who love you. - Donna Hewitt Hager

“ I met Bernie years ago when he came to my house to talk trains. We went to several train shows together. He was such a sweet gentleman who was so ultra-generous and kind. I'm so sorry we lost touch when I moved to Florida. My deepest sympathy to his brother whom I unfortunately never had the pleasure of meeting. May he rest in peace.
