“ Grandmama... You taught my mother to be the woman she is and in so doing taught me to be the mother, daughter, and wife I am. I'm not perfect, I'm German thanks to you, we are strong women who love our God, family, and country. You taught me how to love myself by loving my God. Thank you for all you have given me. I know you are with me still and will always be. I love you! Marna

“ Mama - You are my role model and my best friend growing up. I learned so much from you including but not limited to baking and organizing and how to do wash and take care of a family and so very much more... You are always in my heart and I know you are happy again with Dad! Love, your daughter, Martha
